We the class of 1963 proudly present this edition of the Footprints as a volume in which we have sought to give a true perspective of the life and spirit of Holland Christian.

Holland Christian High School is as a building, unchanging and little different from other structures. But inside its walls there is life, always changing, always unique. A student's life means worry, laughter, complaint, and study; a teacher's patience, laughter, work, and worry. And these two lives must blend to meet a routine and to realize somehow the goal of a Christian education.

As our four year season now draws to a close, we feel that with His Guidance we have experienced this achievement.

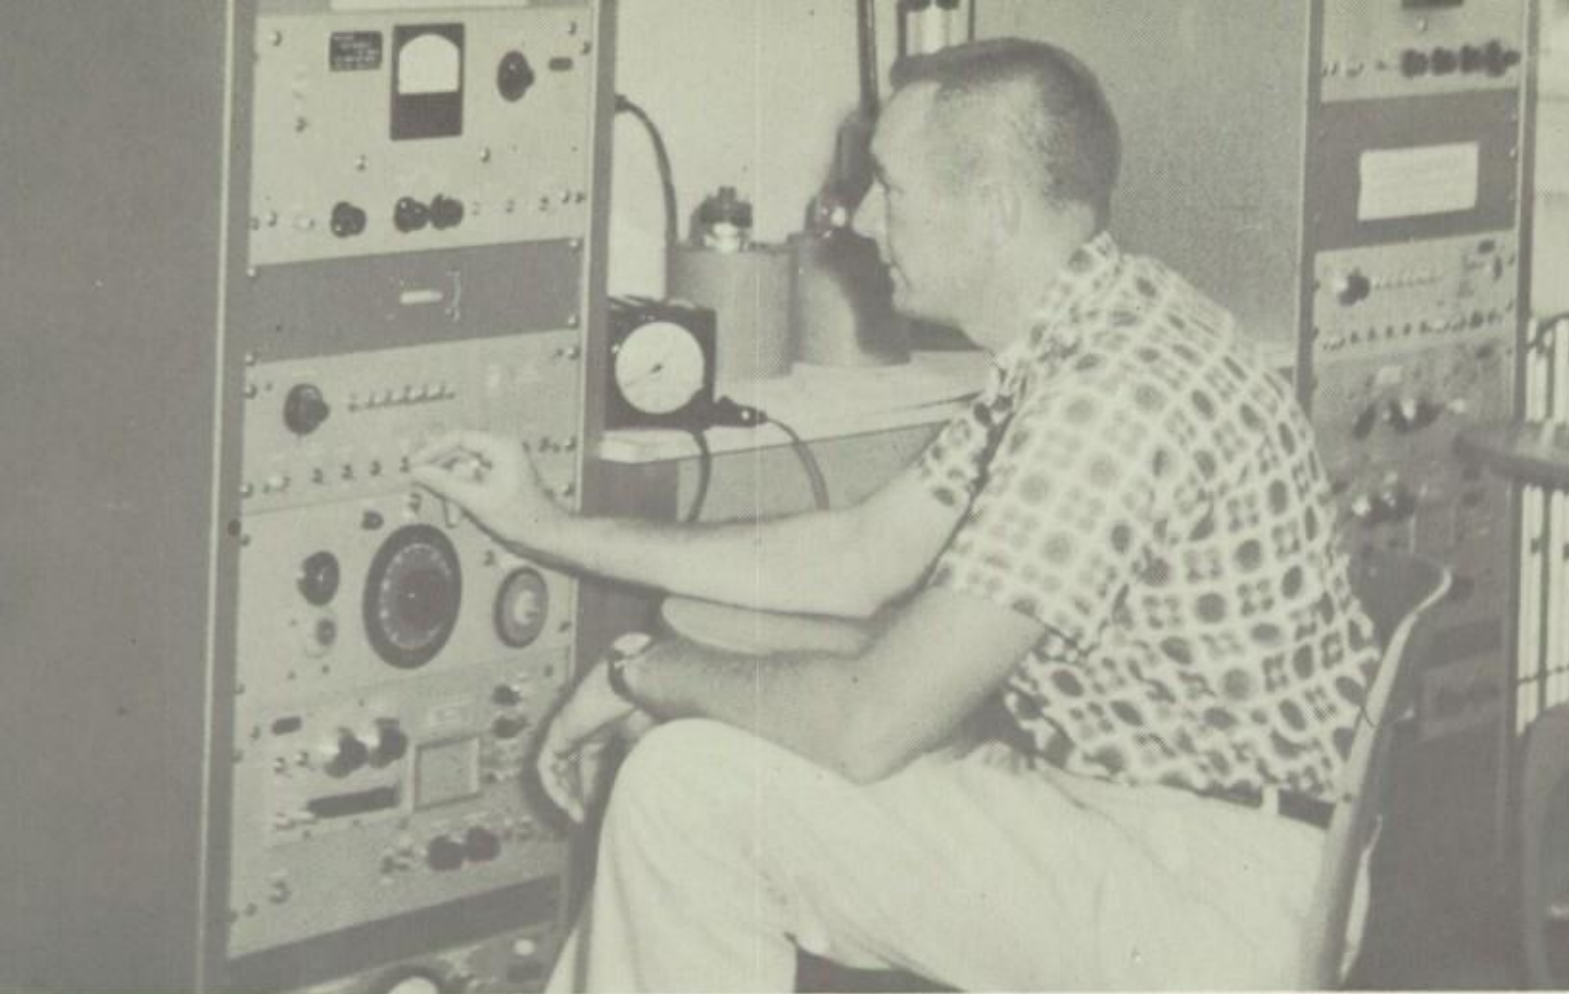

Life is a turbulent sea in which many dangers silently creep. After a successful launching of our ship and a careful mapping of our course, we are now prepared to cross this perilous deep. Although the tempest grows wild and we are tossed about by hardships and trials, we are confident that the unseen Hand will guide us safely into port. The Footprints Staff of 1963 now invites you to journey with us as we recall this year's voyage.

MR. ARTHUR WYMA

As a biology teacher, Mr. Wyma strived to keep up with new techniques.

DEDICATION

To him, who as sponsor, teacher, and counselor has earnestly, and faithfully guided us in our daily attempt to become mature Christian young men and women, who has always sought to impress upon our minds the proper perspective of life, who has so generously and patiently devoted his time and effort to Christian Education: it is with due appreciation, respect, and admiration that we, the Senior Class of Holland Christian High School, dedicate this Footprints of 1963 to Mr. Arthur Wyma.

He brought his love of nature into the classroom.

To The Class of 1963

This graduation is a milestone which makes a period of commencement in your youthful lives. It is a graduating from childhood into that of young manhood and womanhood. It is the commencement of a new day of opportunities, a new path of greater service, an era of future uncertainties, and a golden age of further training and development. We trust and pray that you will not take the challenge lightly.

We as members of the Board of Trustees join the chorus of those who extend hearty congratulation to each of you on this occasion. May you be led so that not one of you will think more highly of himself than he ought to think, but may you also be filled with an unshaken confidence which will qualify you to testify, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

Cordially yours,
Board of Trustees

John Keuning, President

Dear Class of '63:

"Footprints on the sands of time".

"He plants His footsteps in the sea".

In both familiar quotations, the media for imprinting tracks seem not suited for the purpose. Sand and water don't retain footprints. But the poets know that the abstract symbol, the memory, if you will, of the footprint is more important than the actual image, though it were literally impressed in concrete.

By this I do not mean to detract from the excellence of this book called "Footprints for '63". It is very fine, indeed, and we congratulate the class of '63 on its publication.

There is, however, a level of appreciation and congratulation that is more fundamental. This fine book will soon be on shelves in hundreds of our homes and ultimately will fade into disuse. But the fact that you are a graduate of Holland Christian High will live with you every day of your life. Your associations, your expectations, and your recommendations will be conditioned by the footprints of these years at Holland Christian. And in as much as life is not an end in itself, but a passing through to the life eternal, the impact of your high school years is not like footprints on the sands of time, but the approach of an eternity of walking with your Saviour, Jesus Christ. You are to be congratulated in being a graduate of a Christian High School. Our prayers and best wishes follow you as you leave.

Yours sincerely,
Mark Vander Ark
Superintendent

Farewell Seniors of Holland Christian High:

"And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one; to each according to his several ability." Matthew 25:15

Jesus is saying that men are not equally endowed but that all men are equally responsible to God for the good use of the endowments they have. What we are or have is God's gift to us; what we become and how we use what we have is our gift, our service to God. God does not demand that we be great or famous, but He does ask that we be faithful in our service to Him.

Whether we are five or two or one talent individuals is not of prime importance, tho too many of us waste too much time in sinfully excusing ourselves and bemoaning the fact that we are not more richly endowed. It is not so much a matter of not being richly endowed as it is of not using that which we do have. Not to use our talent is ultimately to lose it and ourselves. Our most characteristic sins are the sins of omission.

The world needs men and women who are faithful in the little tasks of life. Too, the way we handle the little tasks of life determines our fitness or readiness to handle the bigger assignments ahead. It is still true today that most of the good things in life are accomplished by ordinary people of modest endowment who compensate for their limitations by the fullness of their spirit and their wholehearted dedication in giving their all to God.

Seniors of '63, for a few years our lives' paths have crossed at H.C.H.S. Here your faculty has tried to lead you on that you might see your abilities, your responsibilities. We bid you now God's blessing in your life of service.

"Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Matthew 25:21

Sincerely yours,
Raymond Holwerda
Principal

The faculty met every Wednesday after school to discuss current problems which confronted them each day. Their discussions were always held over a hot cup of coffee as many new ideas were propounded and examined carefully.

Last Will And Testament

We, the members of the senior class of 1963, do hereby bequeath the following qualities, valuables, and properties to the remaining members of Holland Christian High School, realizing that they will derive many benefits from them.

ARTICLE I

To Mr. Bos and Mr. Huizenga we leave, never to bother you during noon hour again.

To Mr. Williams we leave, taking the sixth-hour orchestra with us.

To Mr. Visser and Mr. G. De Vries we bequeath a large fan to drive all offensive odors from the Chemistry Lab.

To the English Department we leave your bookstore, hoping that it won't go bankrupt.

ARTICLE II

To the Juniors we leave our shoes, doubtful that you will ever be able to fill them.

To the Sophomores we leave the headaches of the Junior-Senior Banquet.

To the Freshmen we leave a paint remover to remove that greenish tint from your face.

ARTICLE III

I, Al Petroelje, leave my curly hair to all Toni users.

I, Laverne Breuker, leave my wise cracks to Jean Rypma to use in next year's "Echo".

I, Mark Wagenveld, do hereby bequeath my six feet-five inches to be equally divided between Jerry Bruizeman and Ken Geurink.

I, Larry Ten Harmsel, will my choir robe to anyone who can sing louder than I could.

I, Jim Reidsma do leave.

We, the six girls taking Physics, bequeath our Physics books to any Junior girls who are as brave as we were.

I, Dave Tuls, will my ulcer to the editor of next year's Footprints.

I, Glenn Hop, will my ability to sleep through class to Jean Mannes.

I, Jarvis Ter Haar leave, still allergic to lipstick.

We, Cheryl Van Maastricht and Sharon Scheerhorn leave with the capital of Arkansas on our fourth finger.

I, Marilyn De Waard, bequeath my distorted sense of balance to anyone who can fall as hard as I did.

I, Judy Van Hemert, leave little Chuckie. May I?

I, Steve Bouman, leave as quietly as I came in.

School Life

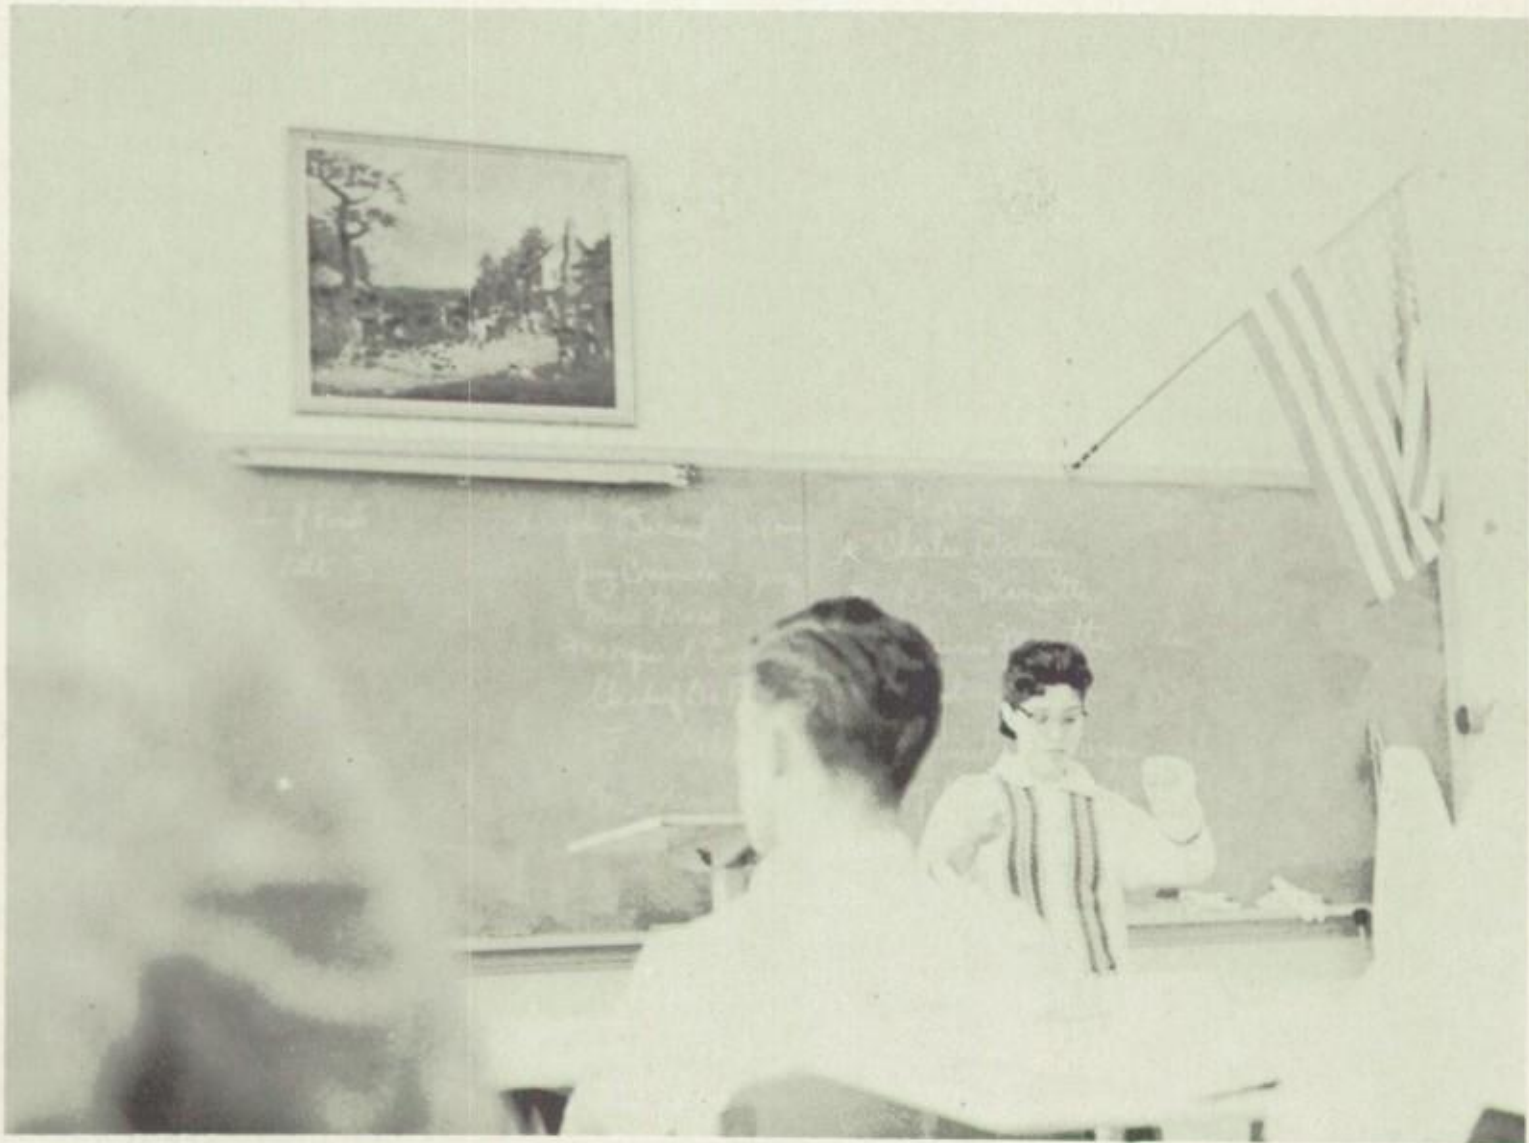

We opened our day with a devotional period.

The pianist plays an important part in our daily chapel service.

Alleluia

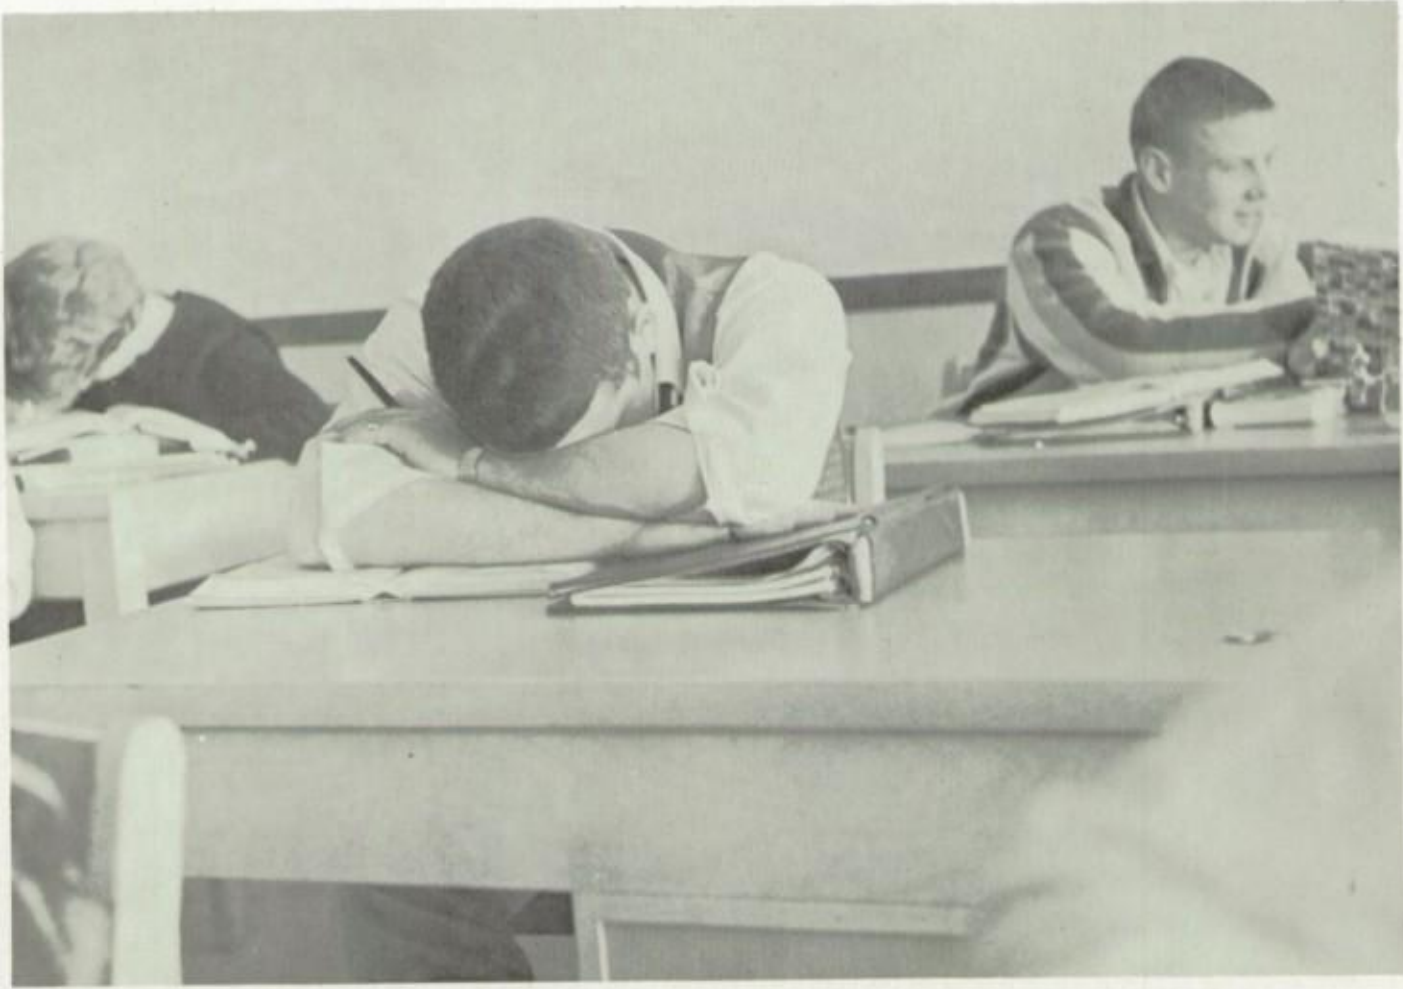

Thith way to speeth clath.

Absent slips paleeze.

A typical way to start the day.

... and this is a study hall.

Our newly organized book store promoted increased knowledge and interest.

You guys claim to go to the library to study?

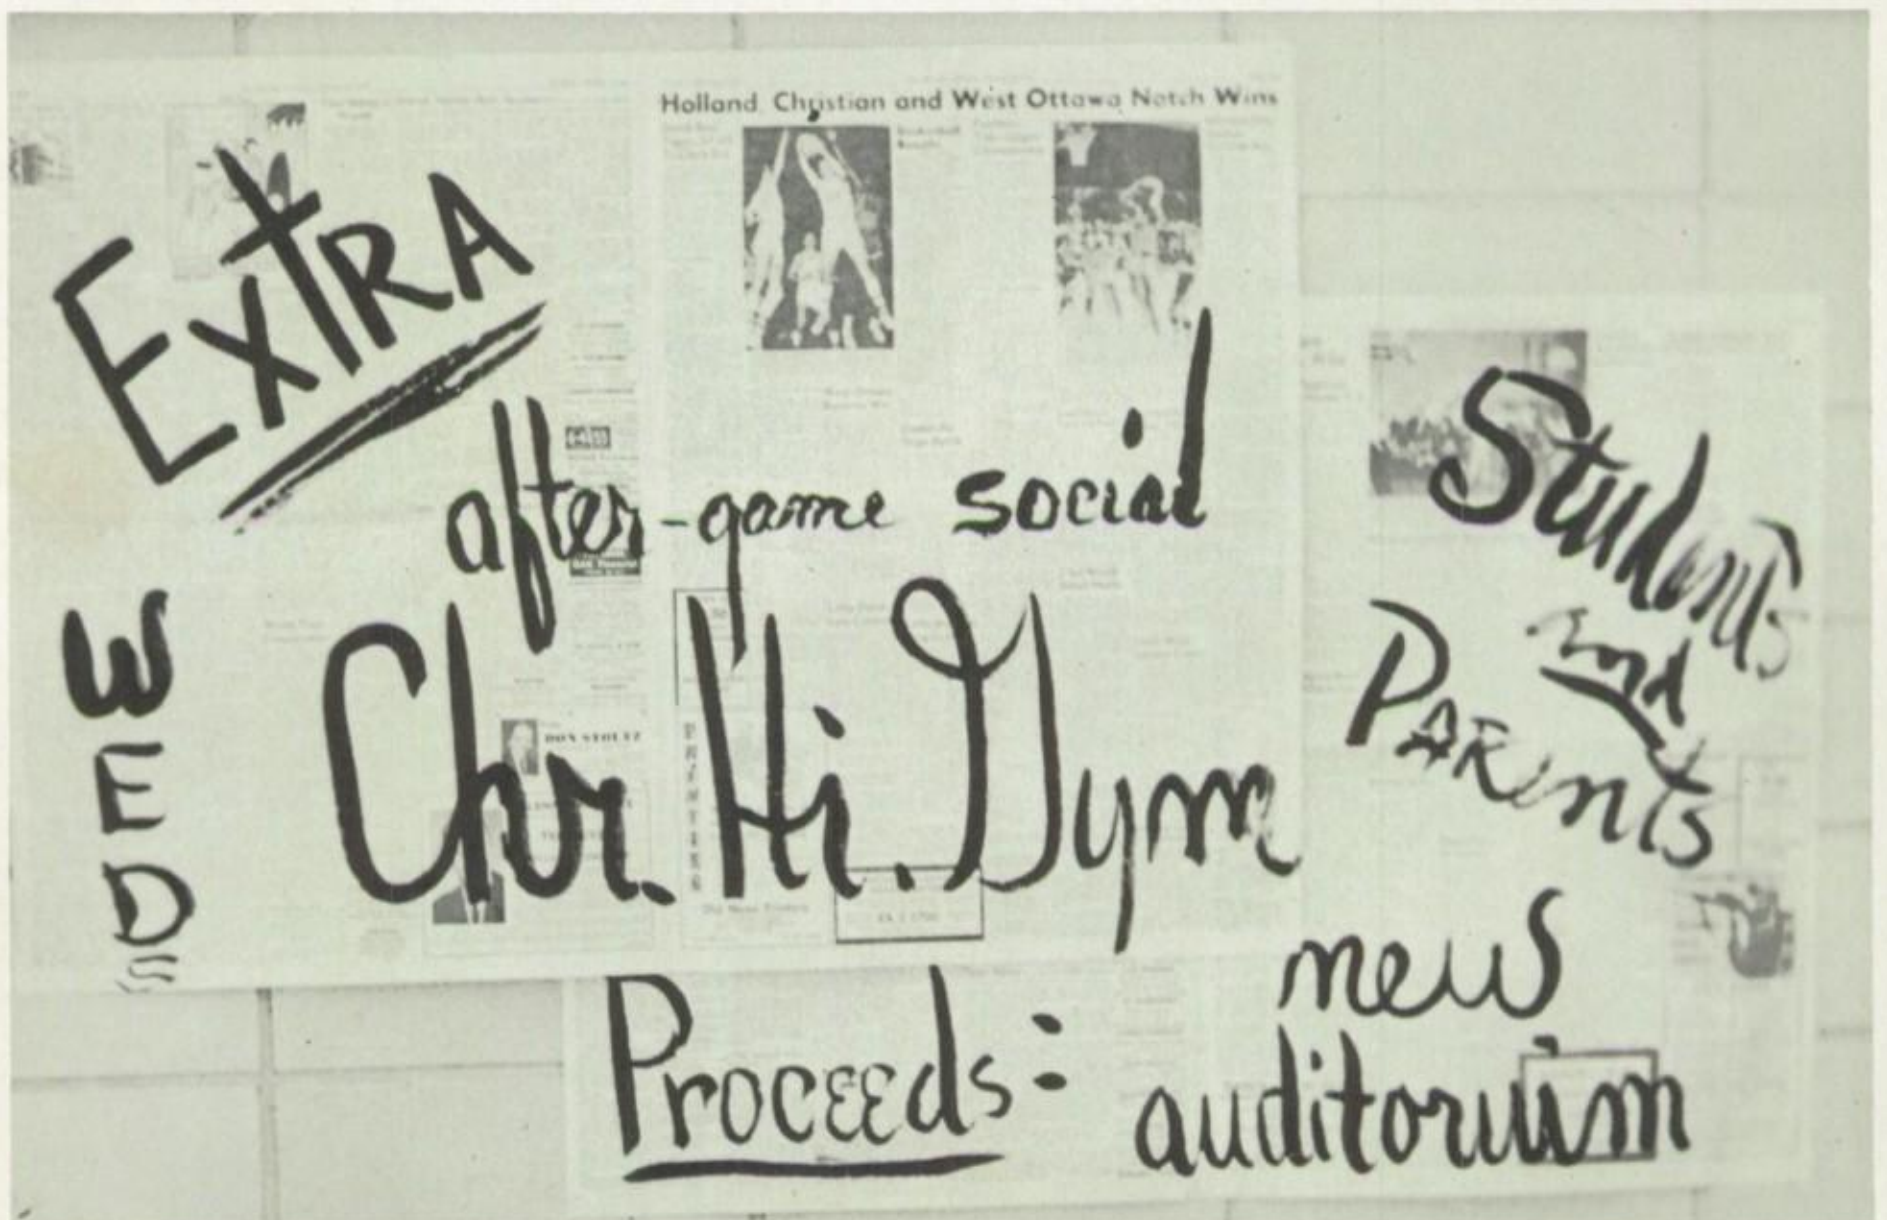

When it rained —

— it poured.

Success?

Success!

We KNEW they could do it!!!

Our school helped promote community projects.

It's 3:37

Say ahhh

A.M. . . . P.M.

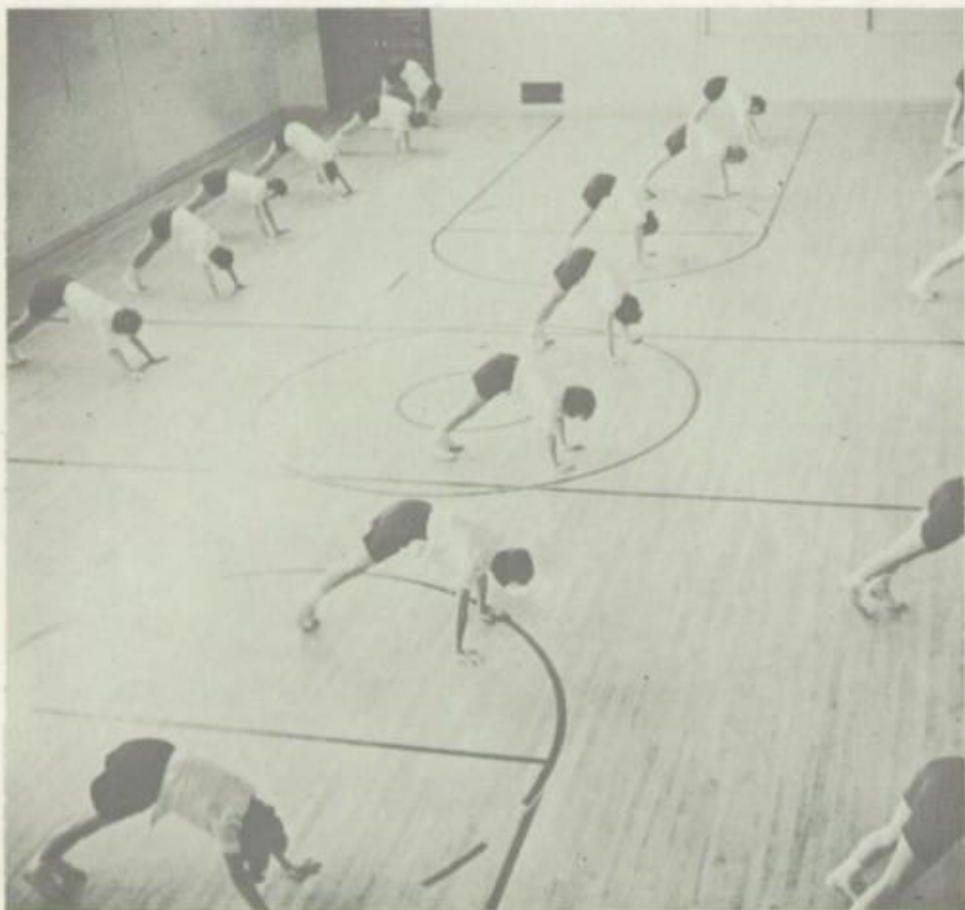

"Good mornin'."
"What's so good about it?"

Victory bound.

Another day . . . chalk it up.

Bottoms up

We've got the beat!

Mr. Holwerda's got a vicious slam.

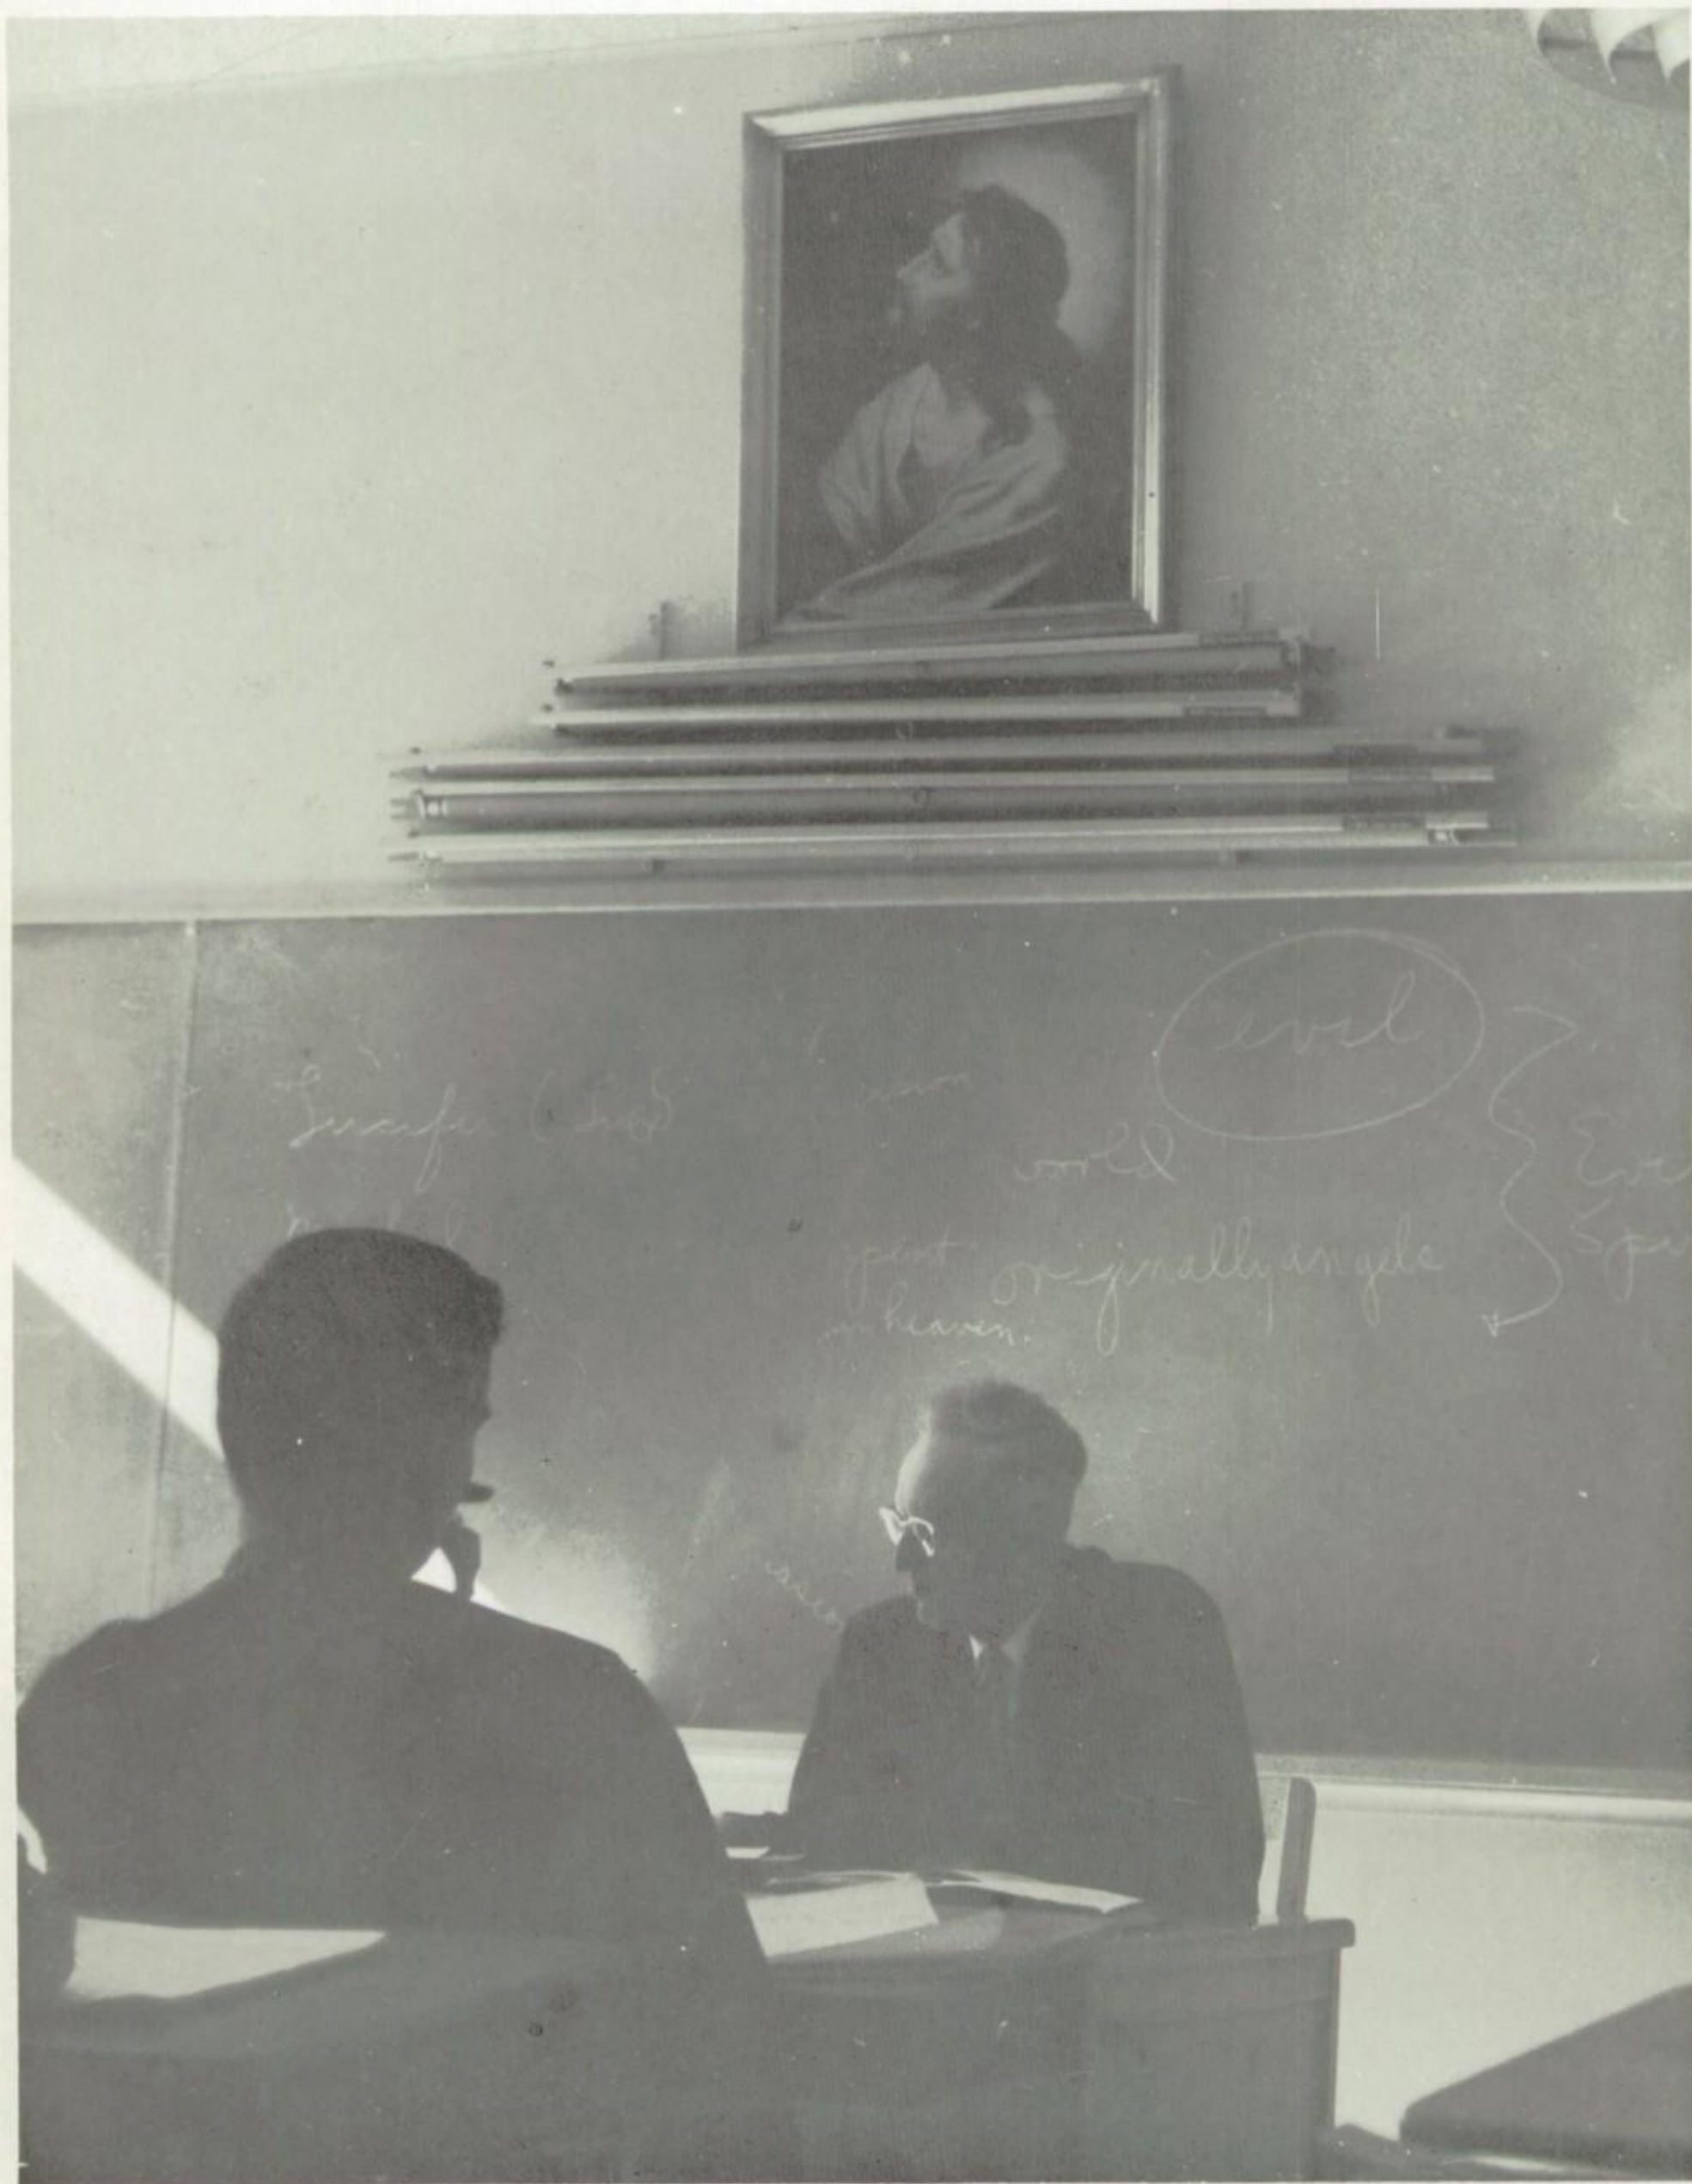

Whew, it's hot in here!

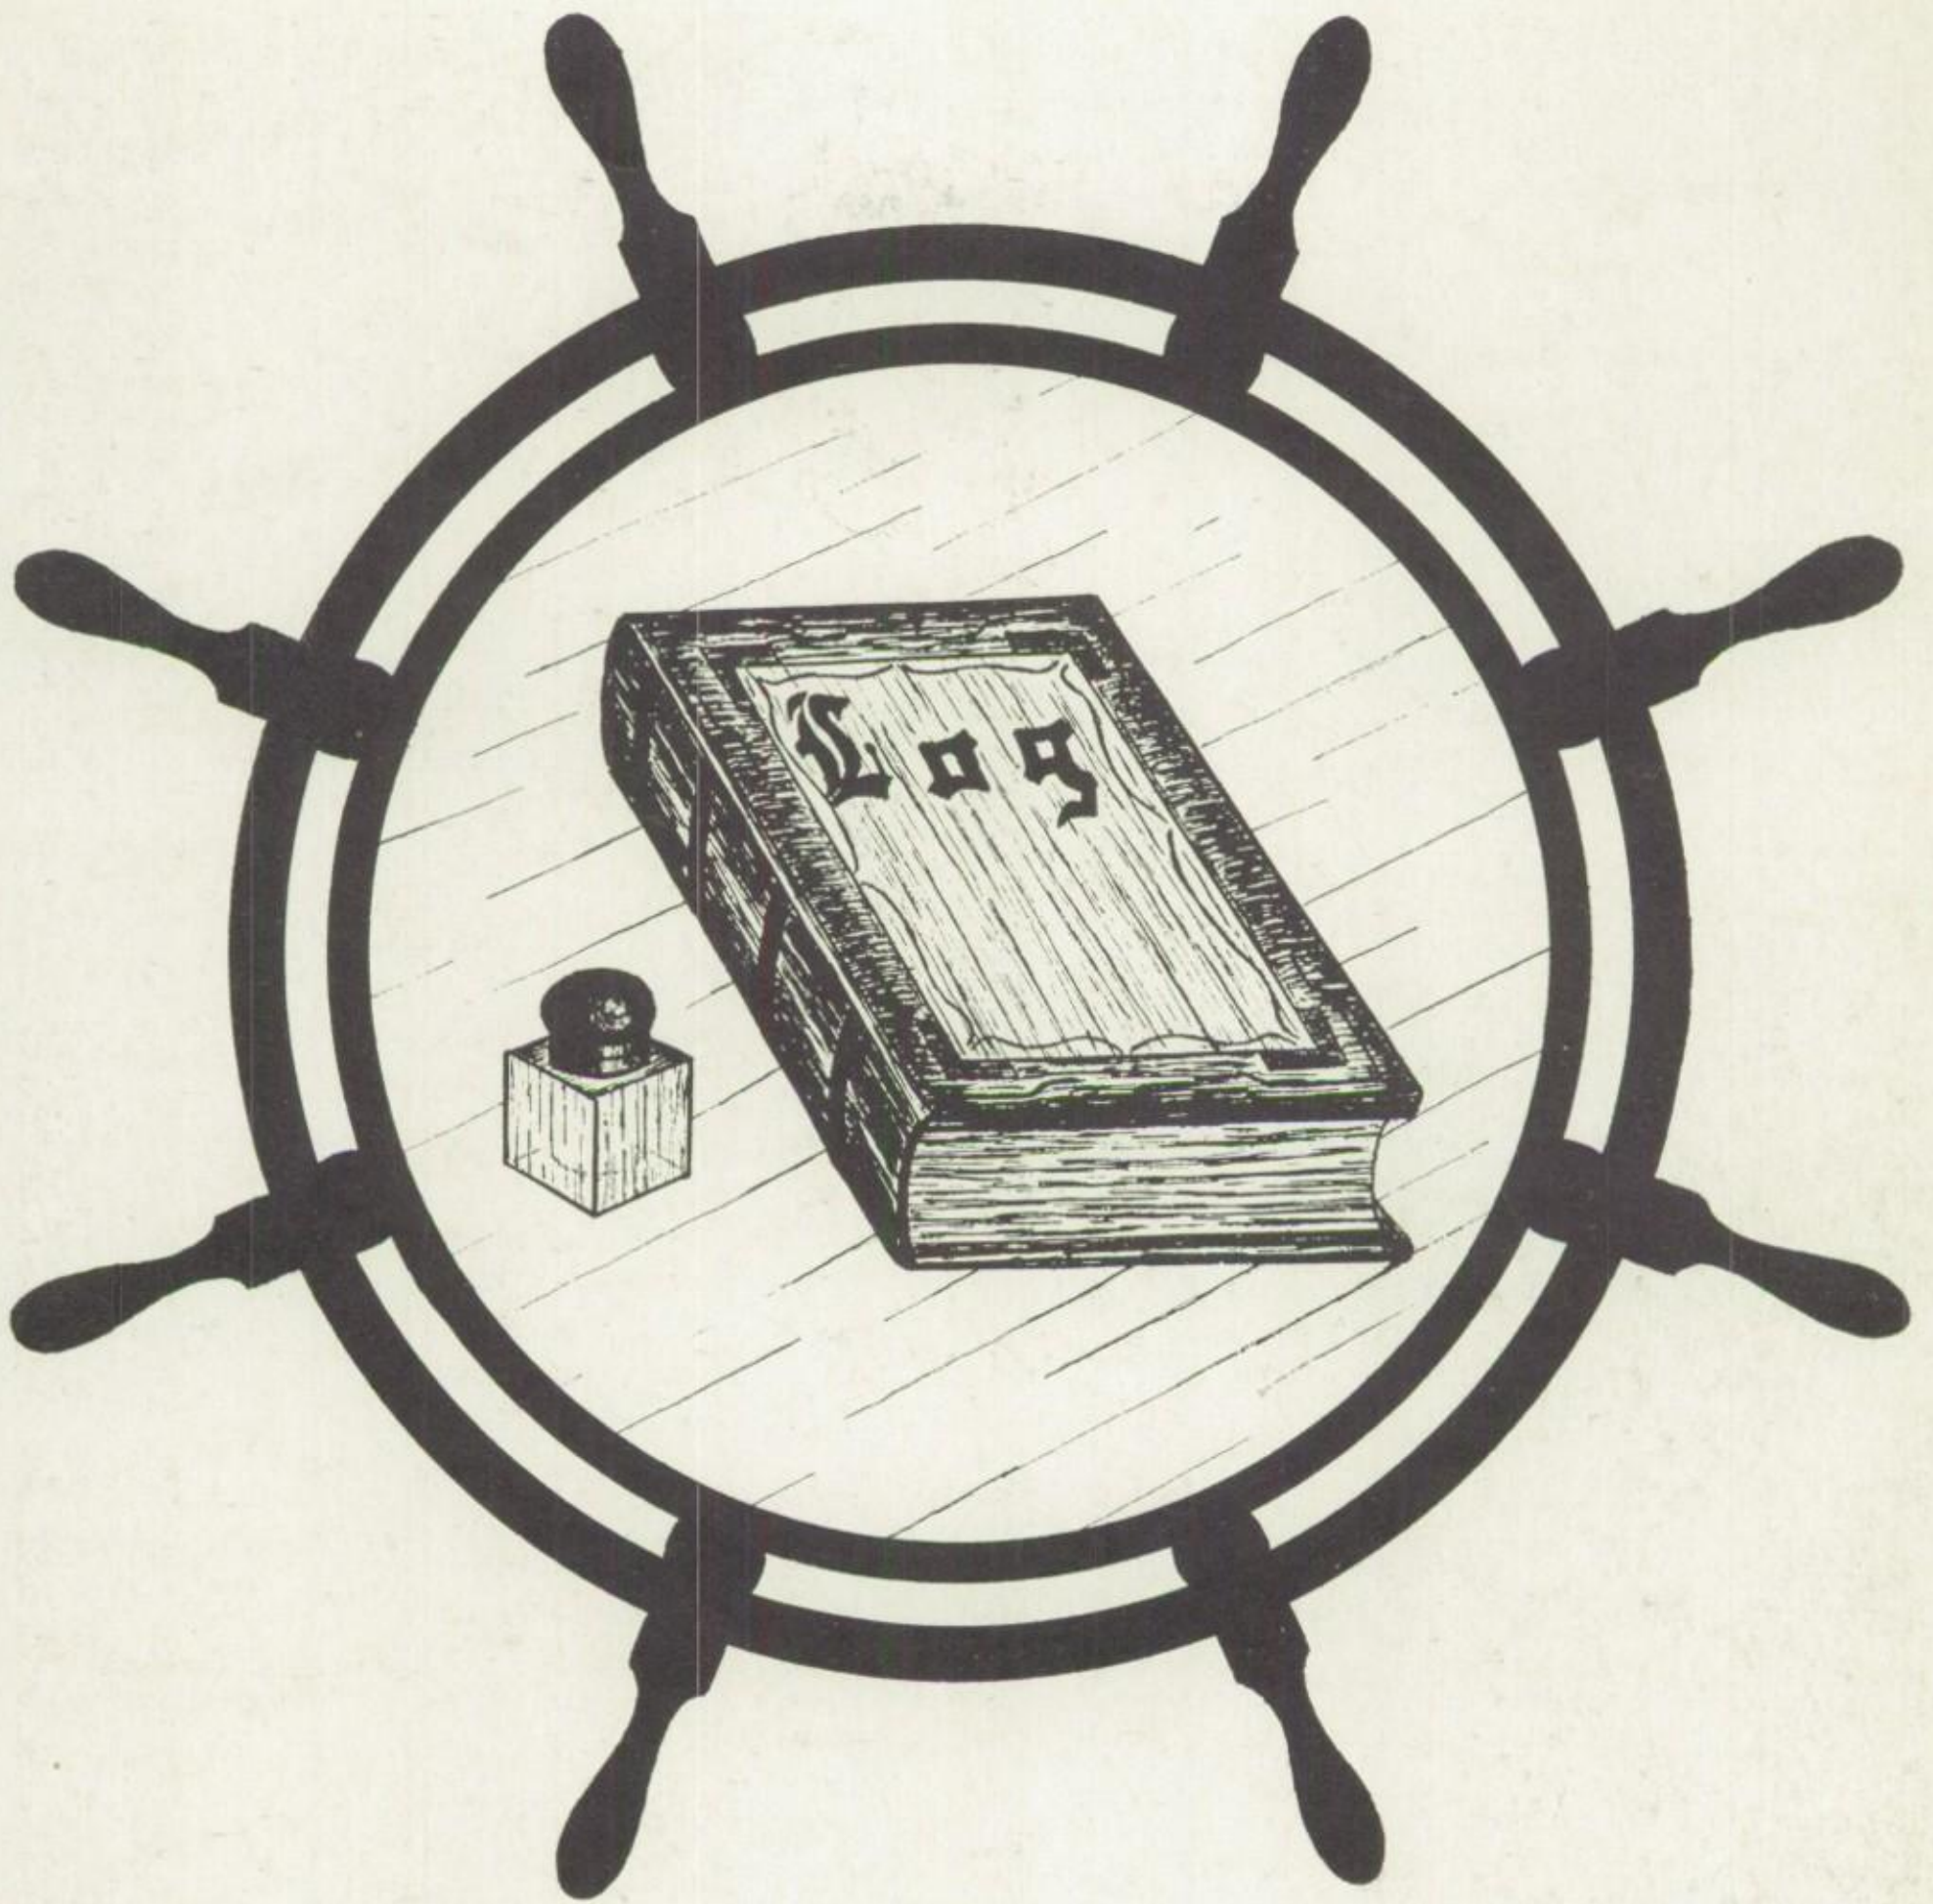

What's new?

How many times have you walked down these halls?

H.C.H.S.

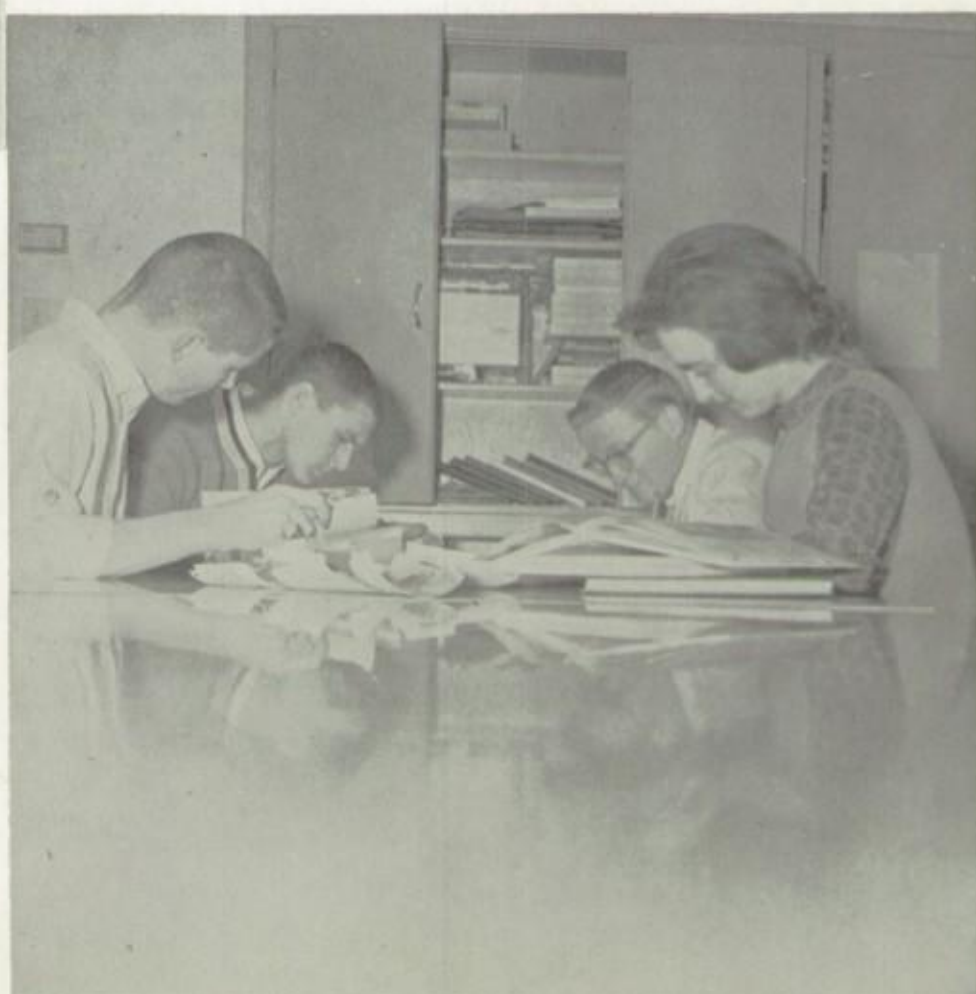

Organizations

At noon, the west end of the new building was the most popular spot in school. It was a Student Council project, Operation Candy Sale, that attracted everyone. Everybody likes candy, and, judging from their purchases, the students at H.C.H.S. were no exception. Thanks to them and to their sweet teeth, enough money was raised to provide scholarships for deserving seniors.

If a class needs money, the most pleasant way to raise it is by selling bright Christmas cards and wrappings. In spite of cold weather and sore knuckles, the seniors found it was fun to be salesmen of Christmas cheer. Residents of the Holland-Zeeland area, impressed with the attractive samples, bought enough cards to pay for the seniors' Christmas Card Banquet and to add a sizeable amount to their class memorial fund.

Much time and effort goes into the production of an annual such as this year's Footprints. The layout staff pictured here, is busy correlating the work received from the other staffs into an organized book. Although all those involved with the Footprints had to work very hard in order to meet the final deadline, they were amply rewarded when they first saw their book after publication.

Selling Echoes was always fun because everyone was anxious to read the latest school news. This interruption during the seventh hour was a welcome change from the usual routine as students and teachers alike laid their books aside. Behind this paper was a staff working hard to combine all the little echoes into one true Echo!

After the excitement of tryouts for the Senior Play was over, rehearsals became a regular occurrence in Room 101. In the first part of March, practice was held about twice a week, but when April 18 and 19 began to get closer to reality, rehearsals were held every week night. Progress could be seen as the players improved with earnest work, mirth and enjoyment of each practice session.

Response to the 1963 Literary Review was enthusiastic as students submitted their original poems, short stories, essays and sketches to compete for prizes and publication. Artists at H.C.H.S. entered a contest for the cover design. In only its second year of existence, the Lit. Review drew the interest of all students when it went on sale the last week in April. Judging this year's literary contest was Mr. Henry ten Hoor, professor of English at Hope College.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council got off on an early start this year as members were elected during the first weeks of school and met before September was over.

Ideas and suggestions of the students were discussed and often put into action by the council. The Council made a special effort to increase the interests and voice of the student body as it became truly a Student Council.

Student Council Officers: Dave Tuls, Vice Pres.; Nancy Hoek, Sec'y.; Mark Wagenveld, Pres.; Carol Teusink, Treas.

"Student Council will now come to order."

Homecoming featured a half-time game between the High School Faculty and the "Alumni Nighties."

The cheerleading, pep talks, and rousing music at pep assemblies preceding basketball games helped to arouse our school spirit.

Student Council supplied bus transportation to out-of-town basketball games.

Under Student Council supervision the library was opened noon hours to all students interested in studying.

Backstage waiting.

"Let me get a good look at you. Whew!"

Busy place before the play.

"OLD DOC"

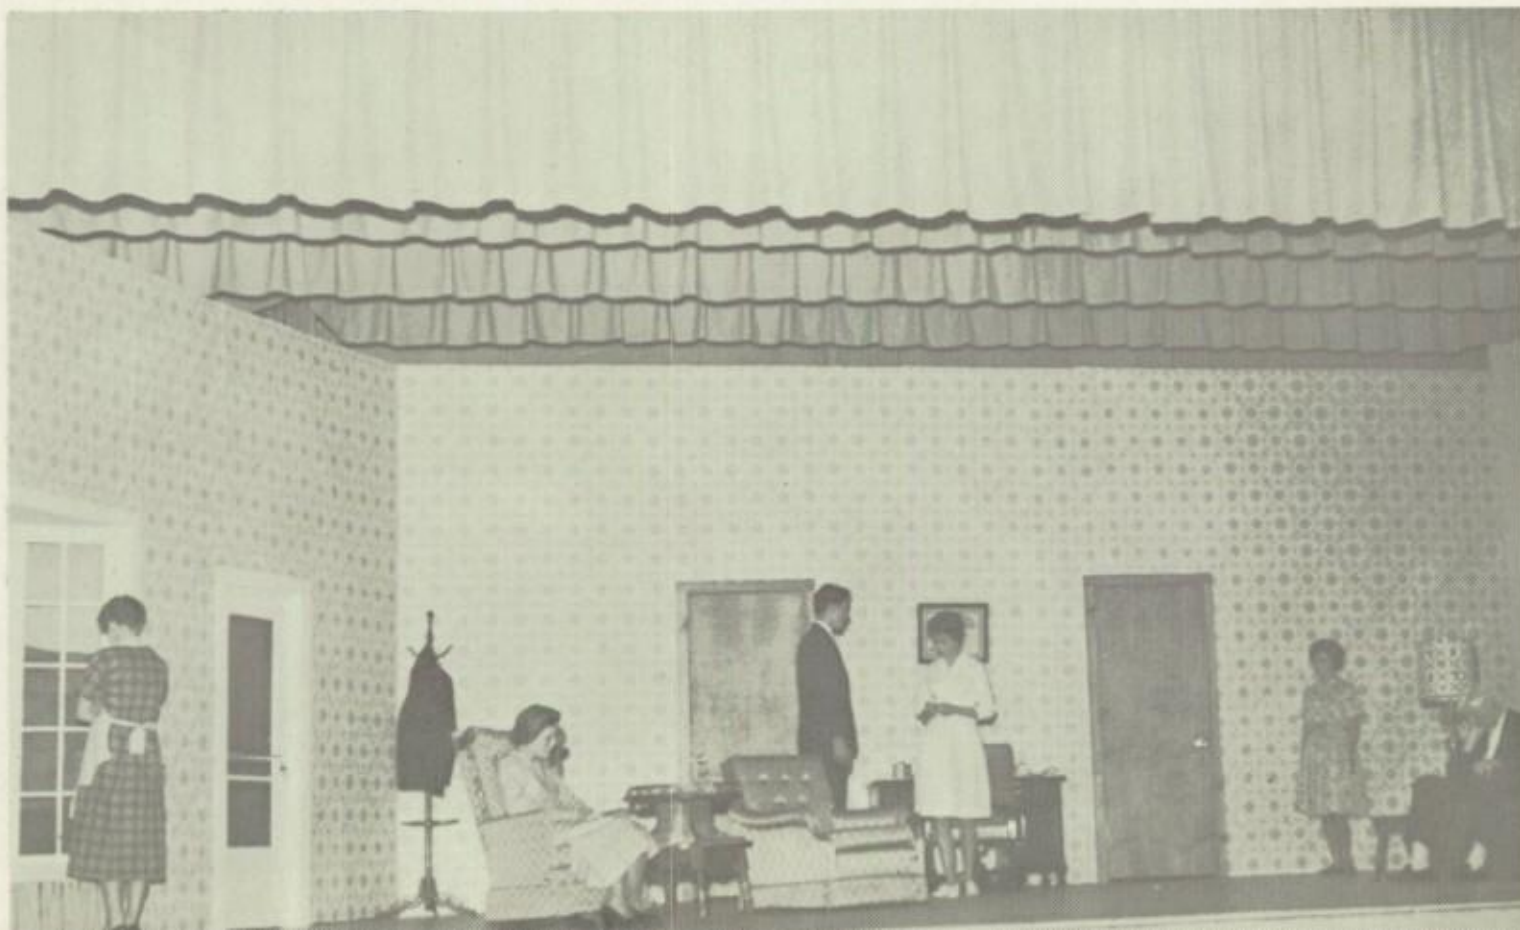

Hours of rehearsal, memorization, and directing . . . then dress rehearsal, make-up, lights, the thrill of hearing laughter and hearty applause . . . this is what the cast of "Old Doc" will long remember. Play director, Marinus Pott, worked long and hard to co-ordinate the varied talents of the characters, and had this to say about the play: " 'Old Doc' is a play I have enjoyed directing. It has sufficient comedy to be light and yet it also has its tragic moments. We had a wonderful group of Seniors to work with this year, and the hearty commendations of our audience made me feel that all the hard work has been worth while. My thanks to the cast, the various committees, and all who worked to make 'Old Doc' such a success".

Many thanks to Mr. Pott for the many hours spent in behalf of the play cast.

"Yes, Ma. He died contented."

"There's a little matter of business that he asked me to take care of for him."

Gay decorations such as this street scene took us back through the years to the "Gay Nineties." From the first cup of punch to the last chord of "Halls of Ivy" the evening was enchanting.

JR.-SR. BANQUET

In an atmosphere of fun and fellowship the Class of '63 formally entertained the Seniors first with a delicious meal.

The program which included a barbershop quartet, several skits, and the nationally known Flora Dora Sextet was highlighted by a melodrama entitled "The Farmer's Daughter".

Seated: Lois Achterhof, Leon Koops, Dale Peerbolte, Ed Bos, Campaign Chairman; Carol Dekker. Standing: Judy Van Hemert, Lois Slenk.

These six senior homeroom captains along with Campaign Manager Ed Bos, gave of their time and energy to organize a productive sales campaign.

CHRISTMAS CARD CAMPAIGN

Mountainous heaps of Cheery Christmas cards and wrap greeted the ambitious Seniors as they entered the gym during 7th hour on November 23.

As a reward for their diligence in selling Christmas cards, the Seniors were honored at the Christmas Card Banquet held on February 21.

WOLVERINE BOY'S STATE

Ron Lubbers, Paul Van Wyke, Dave Tuls; Absent—Henry Bierling

WOLVERINE GIRL'S STATE

Lois Brink, Alternate; Judy Van Hemert, Alternate; Myra Heerspink, Delegate; Absent—Ellen Osterhaven, Delegate.

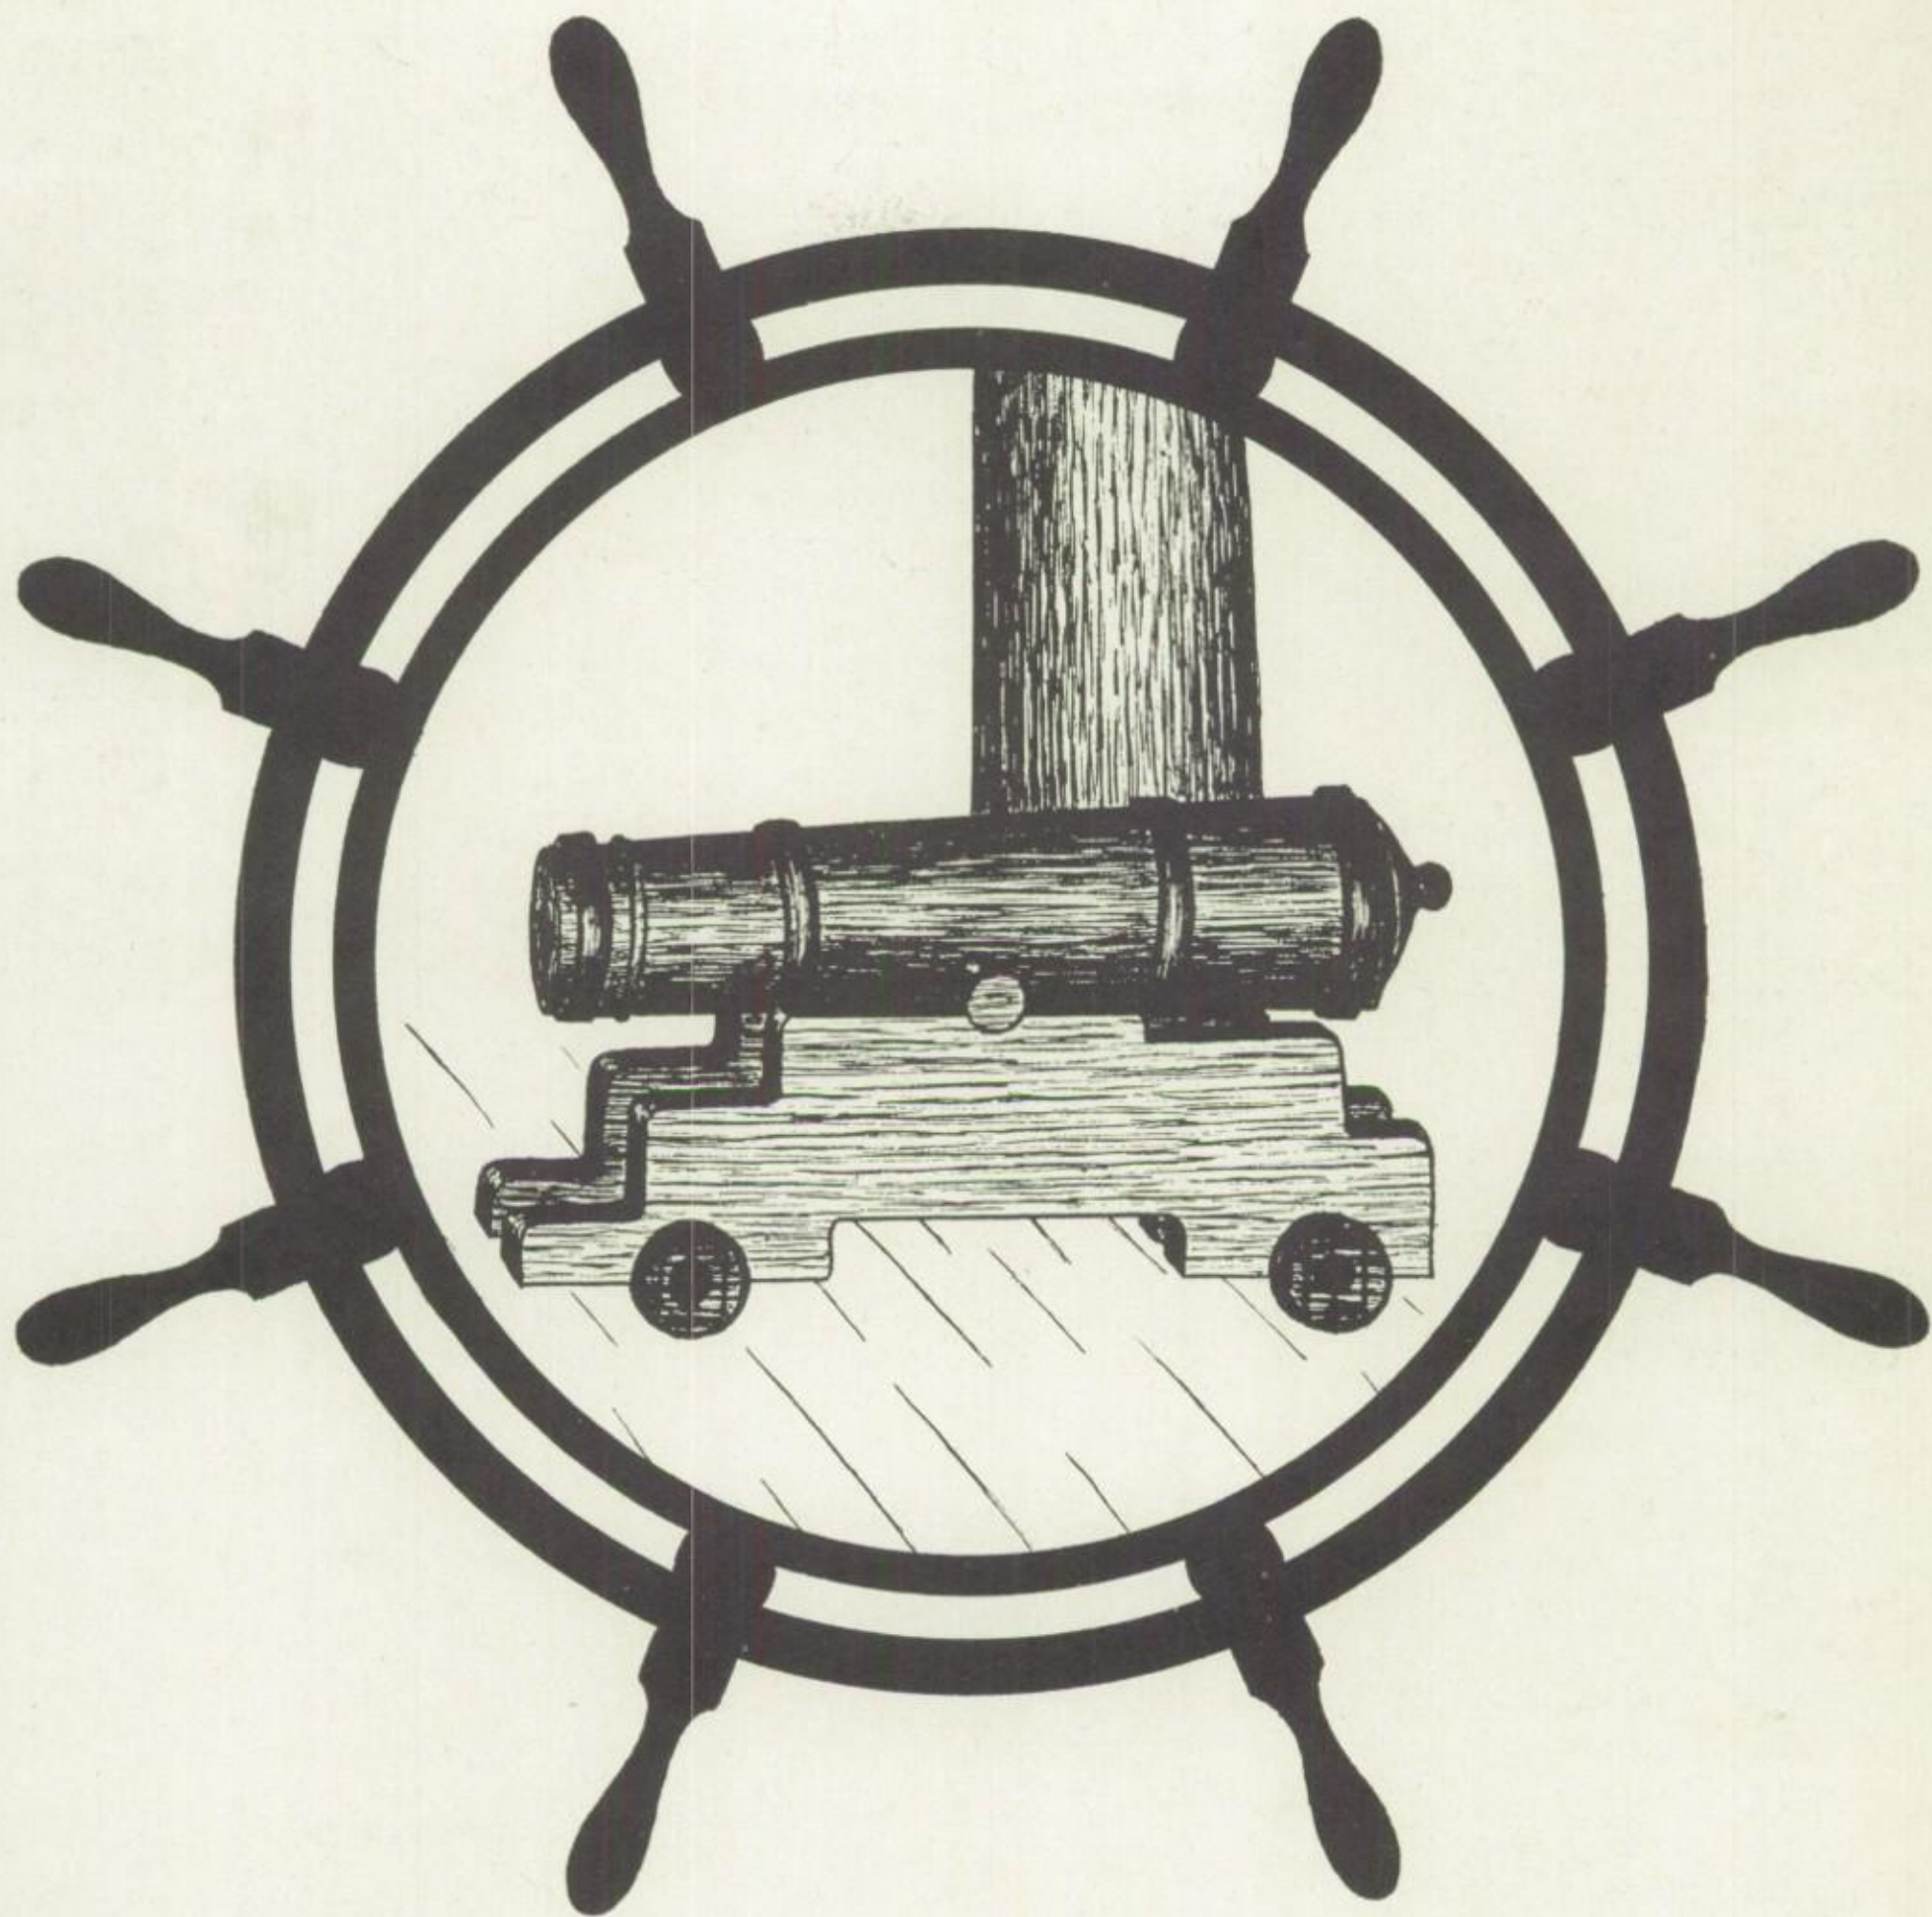

Wolverine Boy's State and Wolverine Girl's State are held each summer in order to give American Youth an opportunity to participate in the various governmental activities such as voting, conventions, meetings, and holding public office. Not only do these activities enable the delegates to gain an insight into the workings of state, county, and local governments, but they also afford an opportunity to make new acquaintances and broaden one's perspective in life.

CHAPEL ACCOMPANISTS

Except for an occasional slip of their talented fingers the contribution of these students often went unnoticed. We would like to express our appreciation for the assistance given each morning in chapel.

Seated: Bill Dahm. Standing: Irene Jaarsma, Jean Rypma, Ruth Steenwyk, Jane Zwiers, Arla Blauwkamp, Barb Phillips, Carol Jipping, Delores Disselkoen.

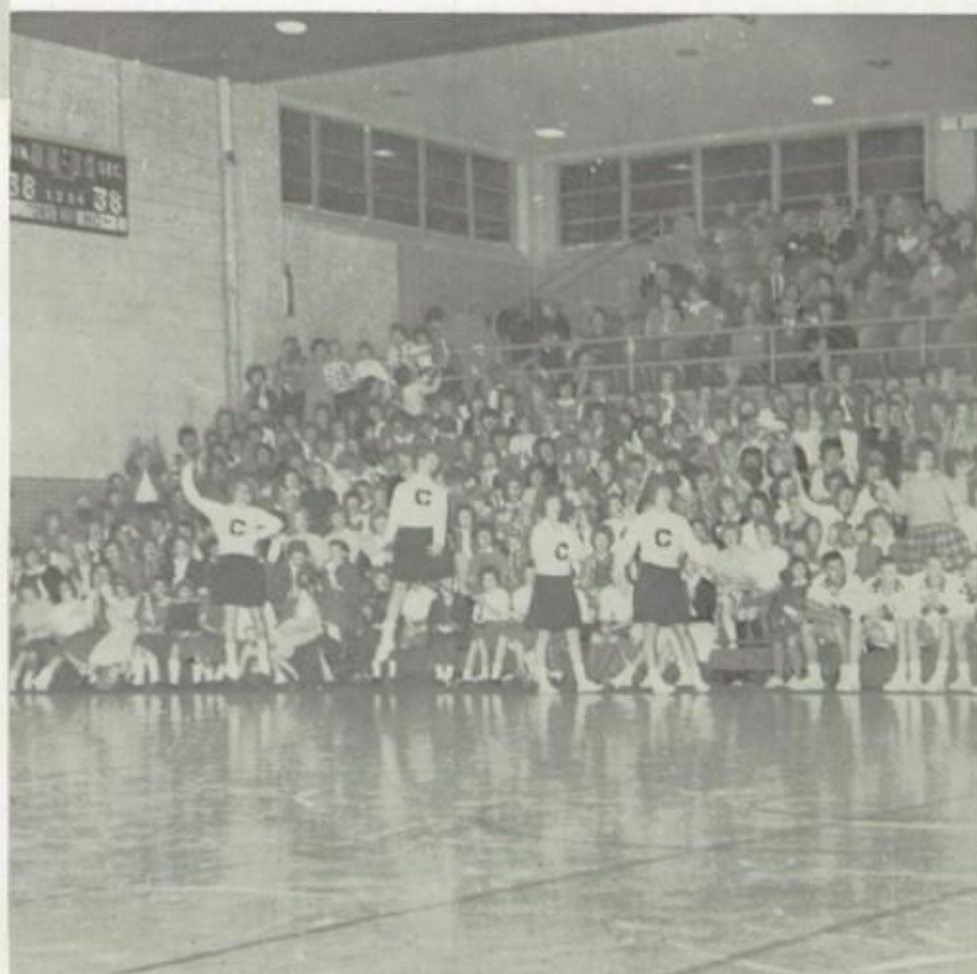

Athletics

After a time out was called, both teams quickly gathered in a huddle around their coaches. Here, while our boys were catching their breath, Coach Tuls carefully layed out the strategy that was to be used during the remainder of the game. The players listened intently as they made a mental picture of the plays which they were to perform. These informative briefings united the boys, renewed their confidence, and contributed much to their success this year.

Outbursts of growth are apparent in the springtime of every year as nature blossoms forth in her full radiance, and so it is with sports. After an exciting basketball season the locker room was quickly filled by enthusiasts of golf, tennis, track, and baseball. The battles against stiff opposition created a new flurry of excitement as these teams upheld the H.C.H.S. tradition of good sportsmanship.

A resounding cheer, a murmur, a tense moment of silence — all these exist in a crowd of spectators. A vibrant tingle of life is transmitted from one person to another until the entire crowd is alive and alert. By their enthusiasm, these fans created the spirit of rivalry, essential to any sport, and sparked that strange, undefinable thing known as school spirit.

With a great show of enthusiasm, the cheerleaders vigorously led the student body in cheering our team on to victory. Their weekly practices and the excellent coaching of Mrs. Van Hoven put the girls into great shape for all the games. Their pep and vigor aroused the whole crowd as they eagerly yelled, "Go, Team, Go"!

As fourth hour ended, many boys were seen grabbing their gym bags and dashing down to the locker room. To these boys, the intramural program was a real life saver, giving them an opportunity to let off steam, and making the afternoon classes easier to face. A broader level of participation was enjoyed this year with the addition of three new ping pong tables.

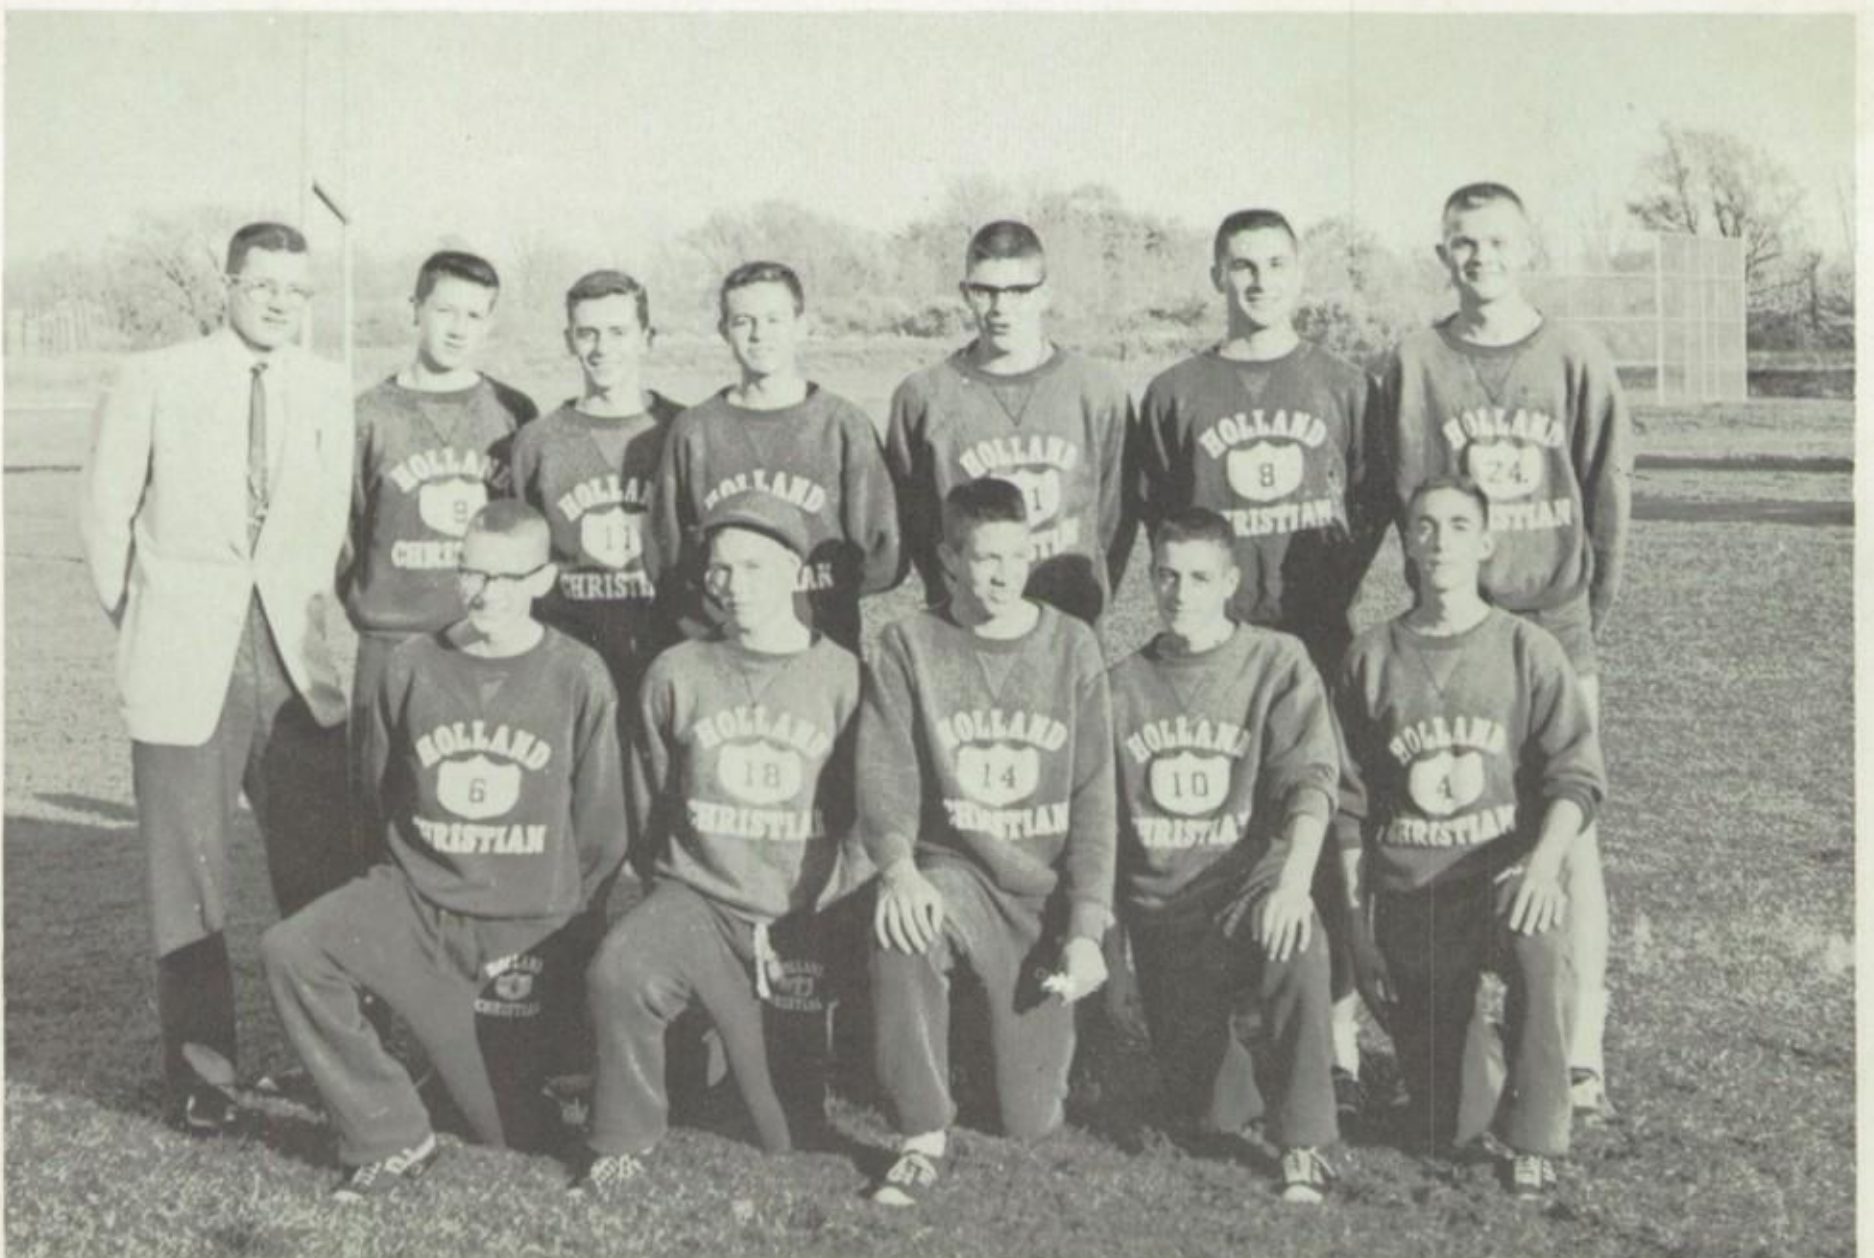

Spring time brought in a season of new sports, as tennis, baseball, and golf teams swung into action. Matches scheduled with opposing schools often allowed the players to skip seventh hour. Much to the dismay of the student onlookers, these members piled into cars and happily waved goodbye as they took off to meet their opponents.

So, this is Cross-Country!

Cross-Country is one of the most active sports in our school — a two mile run usually over a golf course. This year our boys won six meets and lost four. They ran against teams from Montague, West Ottawa, Allegan, and Grand Haven. We were 2nd out of five in the Calvin Invitational and 4th out of eighteen in the Regionals. Coach Persenaire is looking forward to a good season next year with many lettermen returning.

Bang! And they're off.

A lot of sweat goes into the making of a good team.

After the fine performance of the reserve team this year, the basketball future of H.C.H.S. certainly looks bright. The hard work and the many hours of practice paid off as the team compiled a fine record of 12 wins and 6 defeats. Congratulations to Coach Elmer Ribbens and the individual boys on another successful year.

VARSIY BASKETBALL

After the loss of the entire starting squad of last year, the greater part of this season was spent in rebuilding the confidence and experience of our team. Because of this setback, we got off to a slow start; but improvements were seen and our victories began to mount up.

This hard-fighting team received much encouragement from Coach Tuls. His many hours of tedious work and excellent coaching deserve the appreciation and thanks of every player and spectator.

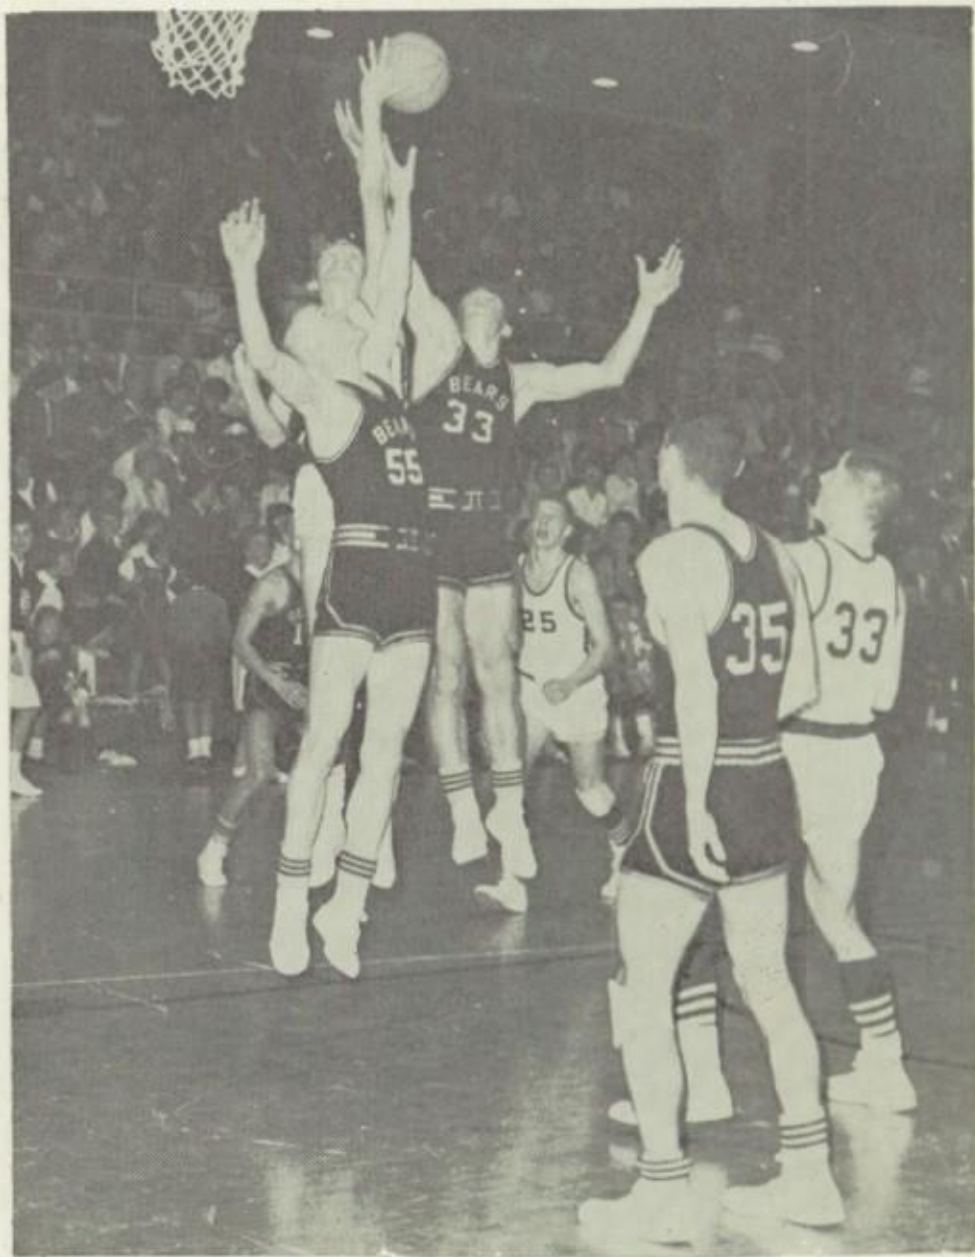

Although we were bounced out of the tournaments by a heartbreaking two-point defeat, we will always remember the '62-'63 team for its excellent school spirit and sportsmanship.

OUR CHEERLEADERS WERE TOPS

A new system for the selection of Cheerleaders was introduced this year. The judging was done by the faculty and the Student Council, and these eight were chosen from many anxious candidates. As a result of their hard practice, both individually and together, their performances at every game fired our enthusiasm to cheer our teams on to victory.

GOLF

Interest in the "gentlemen's sport" increased this year as many underclassmen showed up for the first practice. The team worked hard to give a good showing of itself as it participated in the West State Golf League. With the excellent coaching of Mr. Holwerda, the boys are eagerly looking forward to success in the May Tournaments.

Sunny skies and green grass made golf especially enjoyable.

Long drives are the products of coordination and strength.

TRACK

This year our track team was composed of many underclassmen (mostly tenth-graders), few seniors, and several of last year's letter winners. As a result, the team worked hard to build up confidence and skill. What they lacked in experience, they made up for in desire and enthusiasm and Coach Huizinga is looking forward to a good season next year.

BASEBALL

Our baseball team, under the coaching of Mr. Bos, began its regular season during the first weeks of April. About seven members from last year's squad returned to team up with the new players. This year's schedule included fifteen games, in which our team gave ample evidence of being a hard working outfit, with many fine performances.

At times like this batting practice paid off.

TENNIS

Seven letter men returned to spark the tennis squad. Although only two seniors were on the team, it showed great potential for tournament play with the return of last year's State Class B doubles champions, Tom Deur and Randy Nykamp, and Don Kronemeyer who reached the quarter-finals last year. In addition, there were several young players who will develop into future tennis stars. Under the coaching of Mr. C. Pott, the tennis team played a full schedule of fifteen matches plus regional and state tournaments.

INTRAMURAL

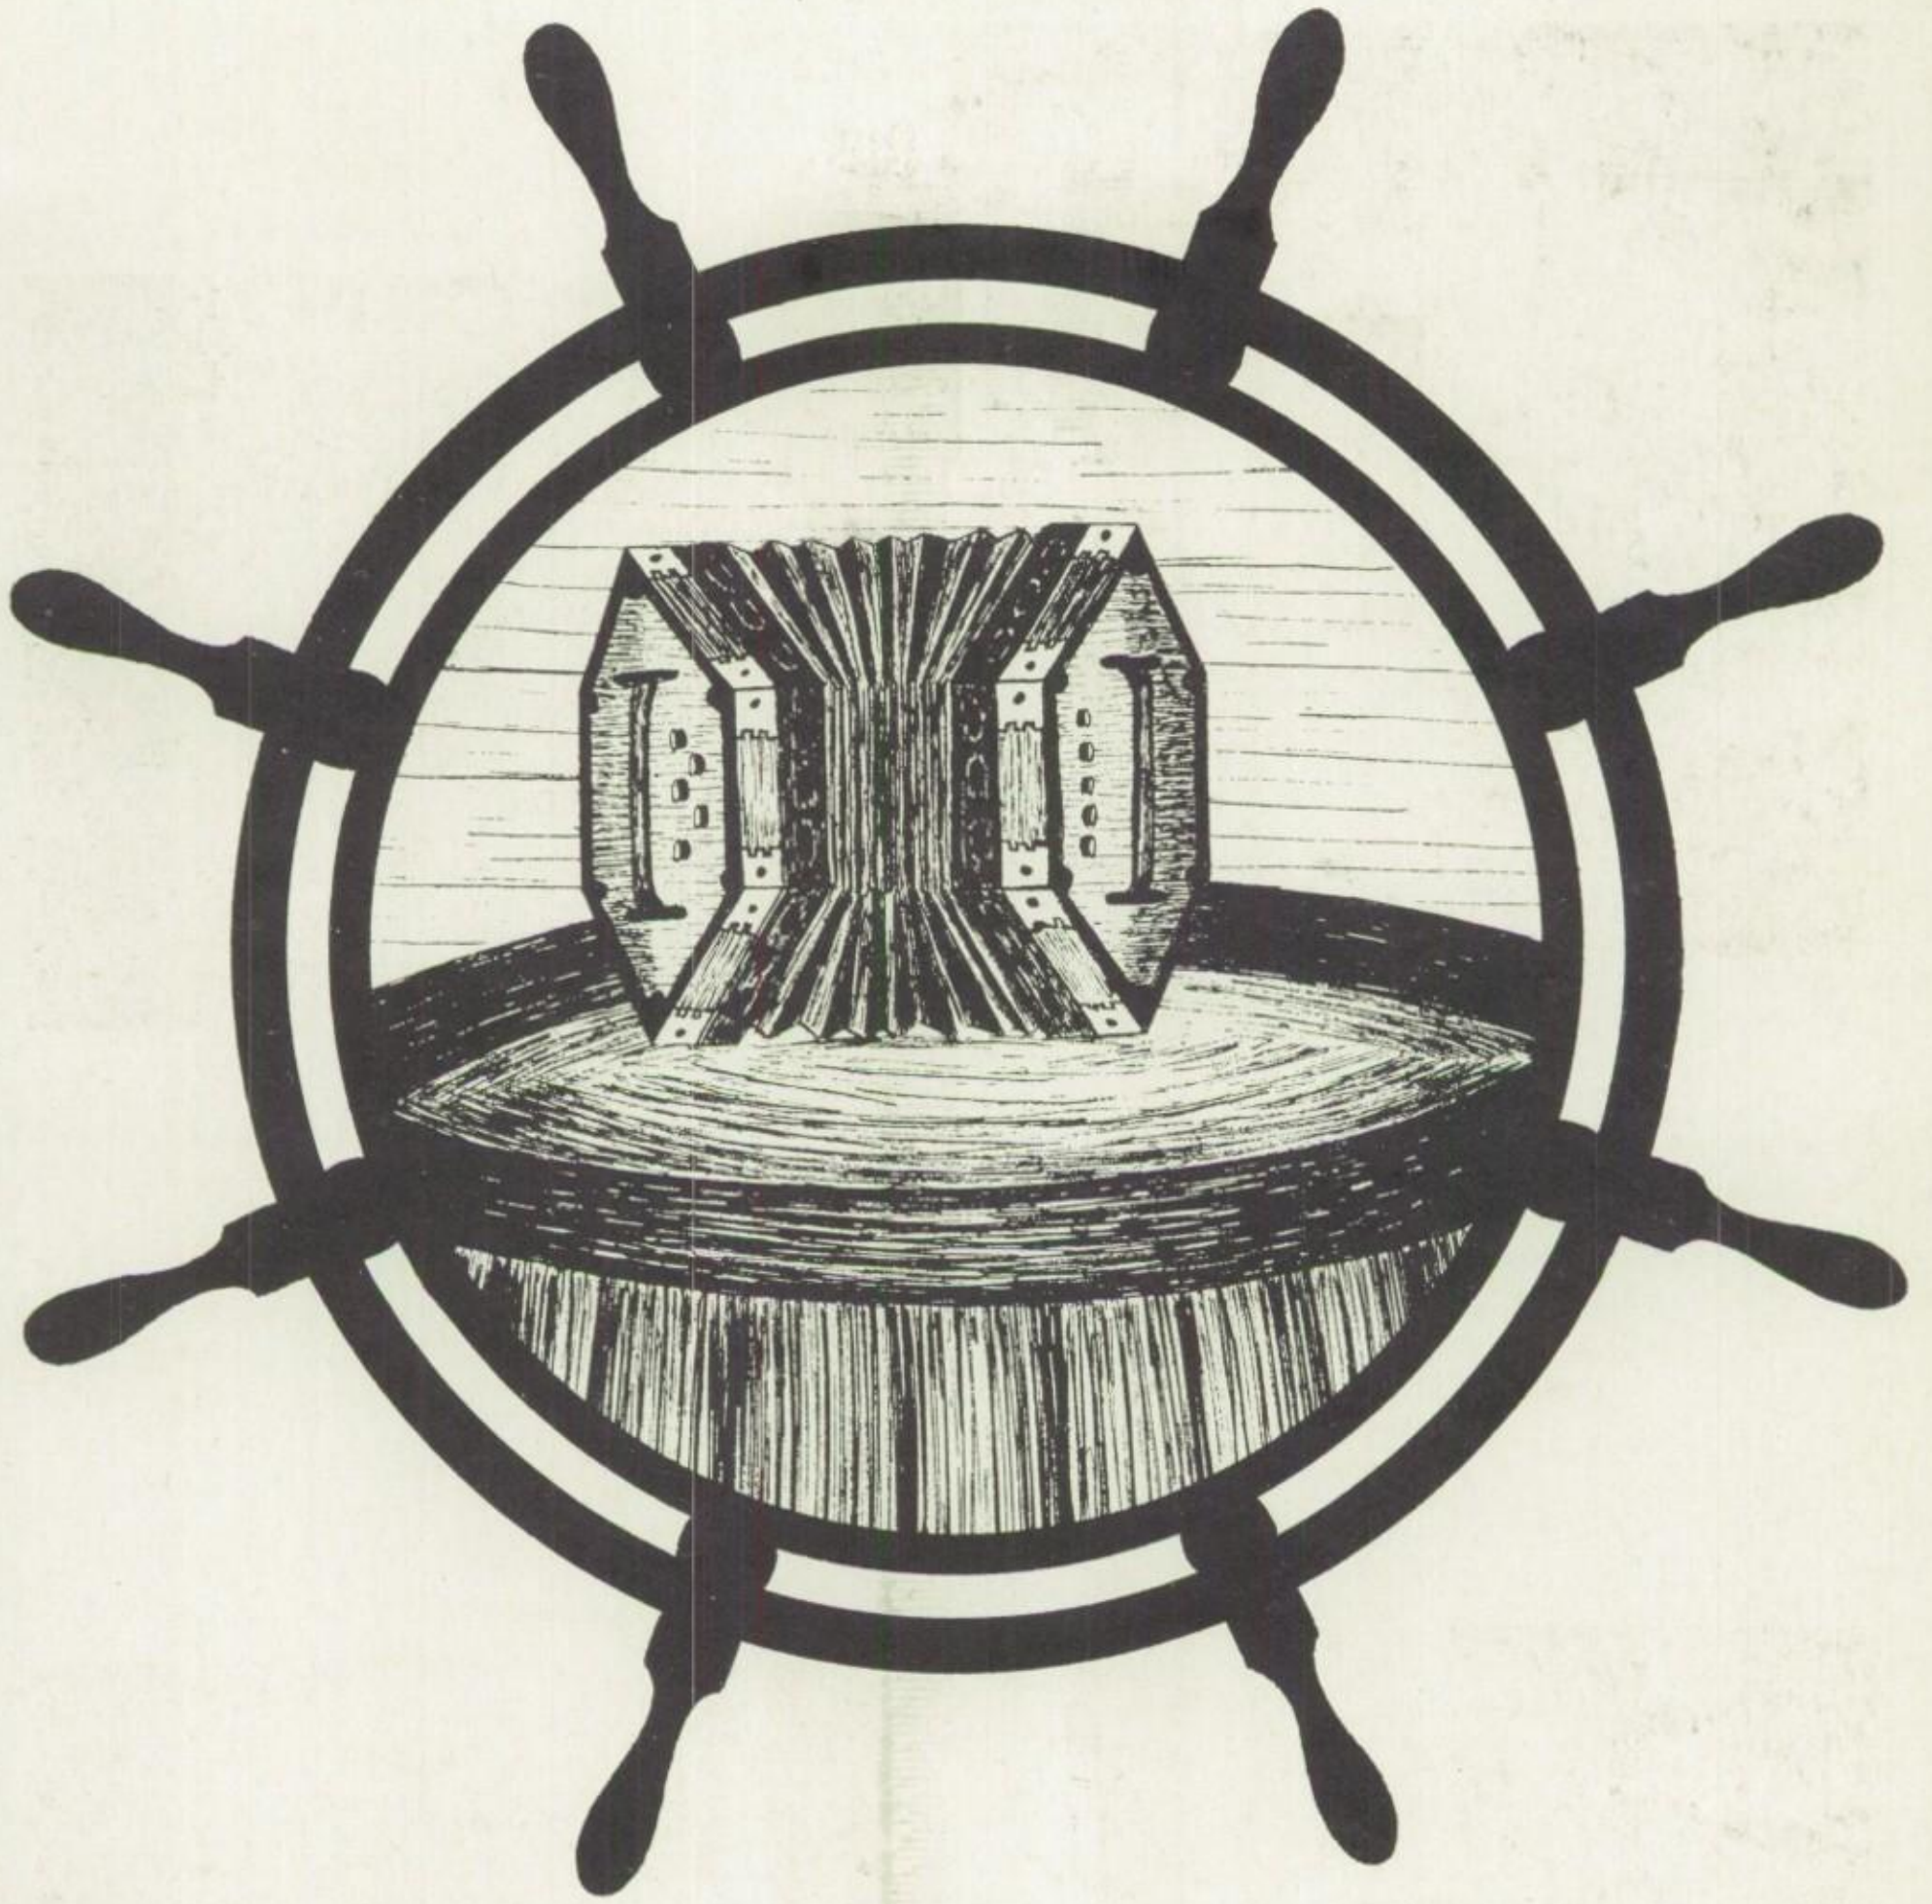

While other students spent their noon hours walking, riding, or studying, a large number of boys met in the gym for intramural sports. The activities included basketball, volley ball, battle ball, and ping pong. Many thanks to Mr. Ribbens for the excellent work he has done on this program.

Spike it!

Many students let off steam during battleball games.

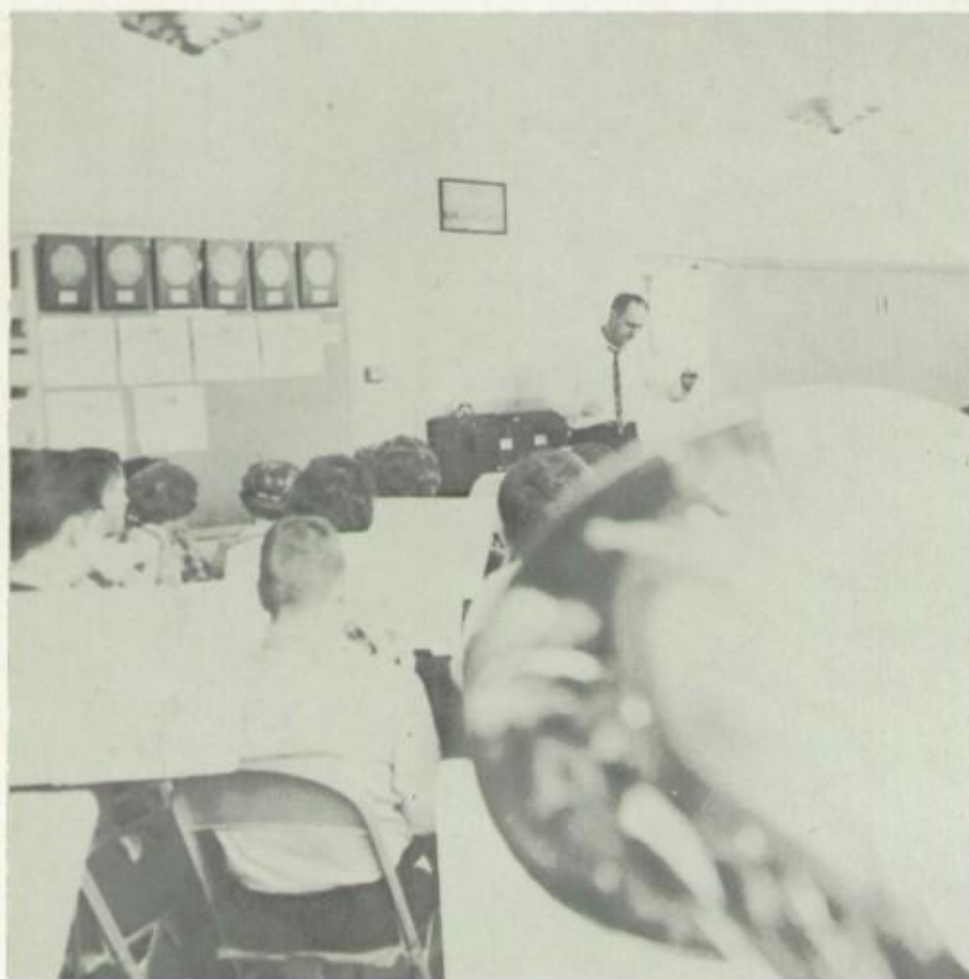

Musir

Memorial Day, Tag Day, and, of course, Tulip Time were events which transformed the concert band into a marching band. As a marching band there were outdoor drills every fourth hour. The farther the band marched the larger it became, for all the neighborhood children and pets walked proudly along. They were just as fascinated by an imperfect rehearsal as by a polished, uniformed performance.

Fourth hour band rehearsals affected not only the band members working on the music, but several classes in the new building, as well. Music wafting through the halls either lulled students to drowsiness or set them to foot tapping. Avid tappers made a project of rehearsing unfamiliar numbers with the band until they mastered the music and could tap along with little effort. Rehearsals were, no doubt, distracting but still enjoyable.

Rousing pep assemblies and lively basketball games owed much of their color to the Pep Band. These musicians proved that a group need not be large to be effective; although comparatively small, the Pep Band could set a mood for thousands of people. Solemn patriotic ceremonies, pre-game excitement, and relaxing half-times took their real meaning from the Pep Band's music.

Early on warm autumn mornings, strains of the "Messiah" flowed from Mr. Baas's room. This continued on through the winter as session after session was devoted to hard practice. As Christmas drew nearer nerves tightened, stops were fewer, and the choir neared perfection. Finally, after several practices at "Maple Ave" all was ready. And again this year, the choir gave a beautiful performance of the "Messiah".

Behind every successful musical group lie hours of practice. The finished product heard in performance results from repetition which may at times be tedious. Mr. Baas and the choir spent the first period of the day in preparing their numbers for festivals, assemblies, and various community activities. From the quality displayed in their performances it is evident that real work was done in rehearsals.

When maroon and white robes decorated locker doors in the morning, everyone knew that the day was a special one. The choir would sing for the chapel service or a special assembly. Since a quick transfer of robes from locker doors to choir members was often necessary, the choir became masters at hurried changes before making their appearances in front of the student body.

BAND

Education can mean more than poring over books, as all band members will agree. They spent their fourth hour (and often the noon hour as well) making music. With "Mr. Van" directing vigorously, they found that music meant work, education, and satisfaction, besides meaning a welcome break in the daily routine of studies. Of course, the band didn't rehearse entirely for its own benefit; there were performances to give. Tag Day, Tulip Time, and Memorial Day turned the band out of doors to parade through the streets of Holland. When marching was out of season, all one hundred and eighteen members crowded into the band room to prepare for a Christmas Concert, Band Festivals, and a Spring Concert.

Band officers this year were: President: Paul Van Wyke, Band Manager: Jim Otte, Secretary: Myra Heerspink, Librarian: Mary Lou Tinholt.

PEP BAND

This select group of musicians did much to ignite our school spirit when it seemed to be faltering. Their enthusiasm spread like wildfire, and it wasn't long before the whole student body had caught the spark. By assisting the cheerleaders, they contributed much to the success of pep assemblies and home games. Many thanks to Mr. "Van" and the band for giving of their time, energy, and effort.

CHOIR

For the seventy-six members of the A Cappella Choir it was another successful year under the patient direction of Mr. Baas. Besides the traditional high-lights of the season, the annual rendition of the "Messiah" this year, the choir also sang for the Reconsecration Services, Exchange Club, Young Calvinist Rally and several times for chapel. As a reward for all the grueling practice sessions it endured, the Choir packed off for a day of fun and sang at the choral festival at Calvin College on May 3. The Spring concert and adjudication followed soon afterwards. Officers this year were: President: Ed VerSchure, Vice All: Ron Rhoda, Secretary-Treasurer: Darlene Mulder, Lee Koning, Accompanist.

Clubs

Every day a group of seniors traveled to one of our elementary schools to help our over-worked teachers by correcting papers and acting as "watchdogs" over the students during noon hour. They had many interesting and humorous experiences. Being a teachie gave the girls a taste of the teacher's life and encouraged them to enter their profession.

Thirty science-minded juniors met Thursday evenings to explore the mysterious world of chemistry. Individual experiments like the one shown here opened the way for curious students to prove their interest and originality. These experiments were a major part of the club's activities.

Nurses of the future received firsthand experience in the present as Pinkies in Holland Hospital. Ten senior girls, supervised by a registered nurse, soon lost their "green" hue and became full-fledged, helpful Pinkies. A typical day's work included passing water, making beds, passing water, feeding patients, passing water, answering bells, and passing water. They kept busy.

All physics students were eligible to satisfy their curiosity at Physics Club. They were successful in proving that a constant force produces constant acceleration, and that a frictionless object will travel forever if given a push. They also used ordinary soda straws to make scales that were sensitive to one-thousandth of a gram. Mr. De Vries planned many informative meetings and made them very interesting.

Many great novels have been written by many great authors, and thirteen seniors met each month to discuss some of the greatest. The Reading Club, an innovation this year, spent many delightful hours sharing ideas in an informal and yet informative way. An analysis of themes, styles, characters, and plots formed the greater part of the discussions which often lasted until late in the evening.

Under Mr. M. Pott's direction, about forty-five seniors tried their hand at drama. The Dramatics Club was divided into several groups with student directors, each group responsible for one play. In producing three one-act plays for the club members, they entertained, learned from, and taught each other. Many of the members gained enough experience to qualify them for the senior play.

DEBATE CLUB

Resolved: that the United States should join in forming a Common Market among the nations of the Western Hemisphere. All year the Debate Club, coached by Mr. Greydanus, was analyzing this proposition. In the language of governmental policies, foreign trade, tariffs, and gross national products, the affirmative team gave an emphatic "Yes", while the negative team answered with an equally final "No".

FORENSICS CLUB

The interest shown in forensics this year, especially by the Freshmen, was very encouraging. The sponsors, Mr. Meyer and Mr. Evenhouse, had their hands full trying to advise and assist the forty-five members in preparing their deliveries. The local contest was held in our school in March and ten of the entrants were chosen to represent our school in the district contest.

DRAMATICS CLUB

Dramatics Club, a club for interested Seniors, had another active season under the sponsorship of Mr. Pott. The members were divided into groups, each of which put on a performance for the entire club. These performances proved to be delightful for both the participants and the audience, and at the same time gave them valuable experience. The officers were:

Henry Bierling: President

Mary Damstra: Secretary-Treasurer

CRUSADER'S CLUB

One of the smallest clubs in our school this year was the Crusader's Club, sponsored by Miss Hoogeveen and Mr. Buis. The objective of this club was to help the members to be intelligent Christians both in their everyday lives and in their prayer life. They saw several films about our mission projects and sponsored a hymnsing. The officers were:

Exploring the laws and theories of Physics was the object of this group. Interesting experiments were carried on at night meetings, and a movie was sponsored to raise money for class materials.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The Chemistry Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Visser, is composed of Juniors who have a special interest in Chemistry. They spend every Thursday night working on special projects in the Lab. The other club activities included a study of the slide rule, films, speakers, and a tour of the Holland Hospital Laboratory.

AMANUENSES CLUB

This group of Senior girls met throughout the year to discuss their future careers in the field of business. Under the competent leadership of Mrs. Klies this club enjoyed a very active season as they listened to different speakers and toured various office buildings. FUTURE NURSES CLUB

The main objective of the Future Nurses Club is to acquaint its members with the opportunities and rewards of nursing as a career. This year, under the guidance of Mrs. Kleis, it enjoyed an active year with a potluck, several interesting speakers, and a tour through Pine Rest Hospital.

Officers for the year were:
 President: Lois Achterhof
 Vice-President: Judy Van Hemert
 Treasurer: Rosemary Oosting

PINKIES

Again this year eight Senior girls were selected to work as "Pinkies" at Holland Hospital. The experience they gained through this work will become very valuable as they pursue a career in nursing.

Joyce Mannes, Bette De Boer, Rosemary Oosting, Darlene Mulder, Judy Van Hemert, Lois Achterhof, Margo Valk, Joan Lamer.

SENIOR SOCIAL CLUB

Many social gatherings were enjoyed by the Senior girls throughout the year. Noon hour meetings included a talk on table settings and a demonstration about crystal and silverware. A style show and a Mother-Daughter tea highlighted the evening programs. Mrs. Kleis was sponsor, and serving as officers were:

President: Lois Slenk
 Vice-President: Irene Meyer
 Secretary: Joan Mokma
 Treasurer: Mary Lou Tinholt

JUNIOR SOCIAL CLUB

Sponsored by Mrs. Kruithof, the Junior Girls Social Club had a busy schedule. Skits were given for the enjoyment of the group at noon meetings, and the evening meetings included a night of miniature golfing in Grandville. The annual Junior-Senior Tea was sponsored by this group after the spring banquet.

Officers for the year were:
 President: Jayne Smits
 Vice-President: Carolyn Schippers
 Secretary: Tena Albers
 Treasurer: Harriet Mepplink

SOPHOMORE SOCIAL CLUB

FRESHMEN SOCIAL CLUB

As an opening activity for the year the Freshmen Girl's Social Club sponsored a "Get Acquainted Party" for its members. Following this event, these girls enjoyed an active year under the leadership of Miss Huizinga. A Valentine potluck and a hayride were the high points of their program schedule.

LIBRARY CLUB

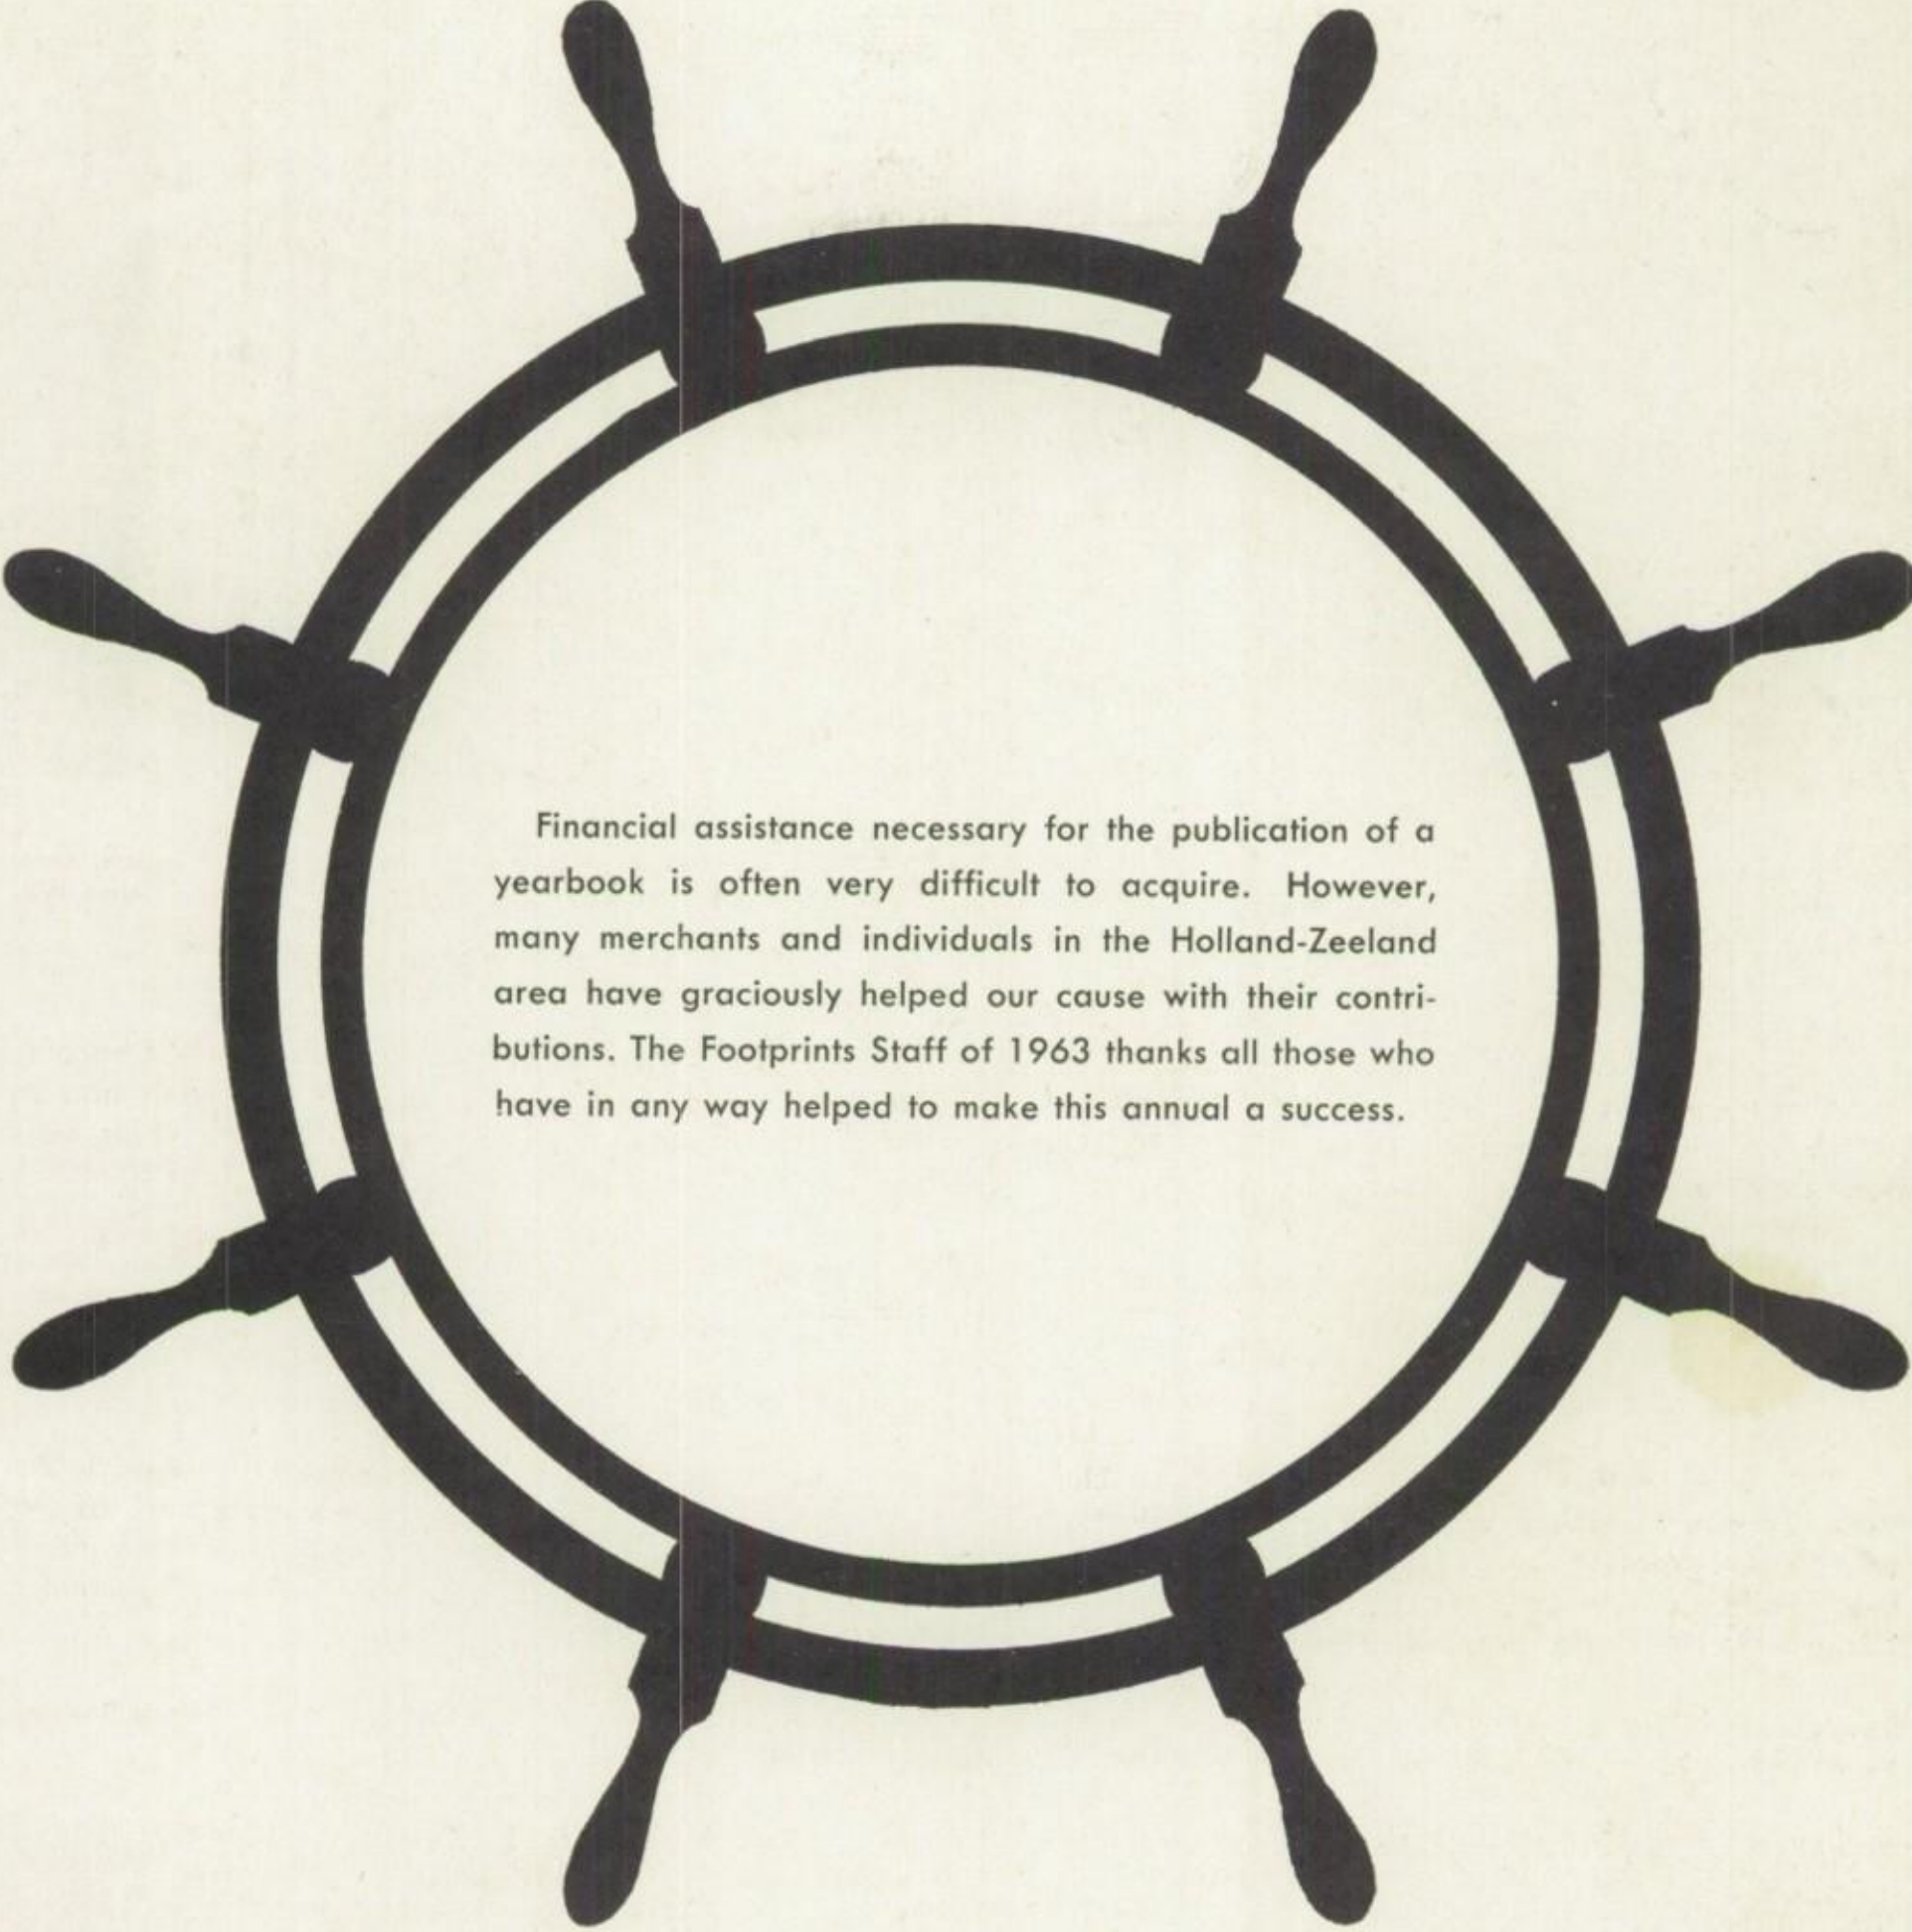

Our library was again a beehive of student activity. With its ever increasing number of books, it has become a valuable source of information and entertainment. During a rush hour like this one, the Library Club had its hands full. This club was made up of girls who devoted one period each day to help in the library. Their work was especially appreciated this year during the absence of our librarian, Miss Selles.

LITERARY CLUB

This year, Holland Christian gained a new club. Ably directed by Mr. Meyer, the Literary Club proved to be very successful. It was composed of ten select Seniors who met to discuss W. S. Maugham's estimation of the world's ten greatest novels. Each member reported on one book and a faculty member was invited to every meeting. Both student participants and faculty advisors found these meetings very enjoyable and enlightening. Officers were: Henry Bierling, President; Gretchen Bushouse, Secretary-Treasurer.

Betty Buursma, Irene Jaarsma, Glenn Hop, Larry Ten Harmsel, Mr. Meyer, sponsor; Mark Wagenveld, Lois Brink, Bill Dahm, Mary Damstra, Irene Meyer, Myra Heerspink. Absent: Gret Bushouse, Joan Nagelkirk, Henry Bierling.

Financial assistance necessary for the publication of a yearbook is often very difficult to acquire. However, many merchants and individuals in the Holland-Zeeland area have graciously helped our cause with their contributions. The Footprints Staff of 1963 thanks all those who have in any way helped to make this annual a success.
